

The Cash Box

VOLUME XXI—NUMBER 27

MARCH 19, 1960

Neil Sedaka (right foreground) who clicked with "The Diary" and recently completed a long and successful run with his "Oh Carol" single, has developed into an international favorite, hitting top ten charts in such countries as Italy, Australia, England, Belgium, Holland and Japan with his singles. Discussing the world market with Neil are Steve Sholes (top left), RCA Victor A & R chief, and Al Nevins (lower left) and Don Kirshner, who produce and publish Sedaka's material as well as manage the young singer, composer and pianist. Sedaka's latest Victor single, just issued, couples "Stairway To Heaven" and "Forty Winks Away". Neil soon leaves on a p.a. tour of Australia, Japan and the Philippines.

Every field has its standouts, but fortunate is the field which has a phenom—a personality who generates a rare excitement from which an entire business benefits.

One of the record industry's all time top drawing cards will be returning to the record scene in a matter of days in the person of Elvis Presley, and the spark which he is sure to induce in TV, films, personal appearances and most importantly records, will certainly result in increased traffic and business throughout the entire industry.

Ours is a business which thrives on excitement, and it is great to have such an electrifying personality as Presley back in action again.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"CLEMENTINE" (3:13) [Tweed ASCAP—Harris]

"TALL STORY" (1:54) [Mansfield ASCAP—Langdon, Previn, Manne]

BOBBY DARIN (Atco 6161)

● The fantastic talent should soon be adding another chart triumph to his disk-trophy room. The tantalizing story 'bout chubby "Clementine" has already been burning up the deejay turntables—being the most requested tune from his current smash LP, "This Is Darin". It also spotlights another great swing assist from the ork conducted by Richard Wess, who was responsible for the "Mack The Knife"—"Beyond The Sea" dates. Torrie Zito's crew tastefully backs up Darin as he contagiously breezes thru the title-tune class-swing from the "Tall Story" flick.

"WHAT AM I LIVING FOR" (2:34)

[Rush, Progressive BMI—Jay, Harris]

"THE HURT IN MY HEART" (2:23)

[Moorpack, Aberbach Canada Ltd. BMI—Wise, Wiseman]

CONWAY TWITTY (MGM 12866)

● Either end here can follow in the hit footsteps of Twitty's current chart smash, "Lonely Blue Boy." One side's the famed Chuck Willis blueser, "What Am I Living For" while the other's a heartfelt newcomer tagged, "The Hurt In My Heart." Both are taken for potent ballad-with-a-beat rides and both are treated to the artist's familiar deep-down, grunt-like vocal style. Two powerhouses.

"GOT A GIRL" (2:25)

[Lar-Bell-Larson, Belland]

"HEAR IT FROM ME" (2:17)

[Lar-Bell-Larson, Belland]

THE FOUR PREPS (Capitol 4362)

● There's the smash label stamped all over both ends of the Preps' latest Capitol coupling. The ultra-commercial "Got A Girl" jumper features a thoroughly refreshing set of romantic lyrics and musical backdrop that has a "Big Man" feel. "Hear It From Me" is a beautiful ballad pleader taken for a delightful "Down By The Station" cha cha ride (with a charming madrigal-like flavoring). Two big winners.

"JUST A CLOSER WALK WITH THEE" (3:03)

[Hill & Range BMI—Winsett]

"JOSHUA FIT THE BATTLE O' JERICHO" (1:54)

[Planetary ASCAP—Arr. Laws]

JIMMIE RODGERS (Roulette 4234)

● Roulette has turned to a Rodgers' LP, "When The Spirit Moves You," for a follow-up to his recent hit, "T.L.C. (Tender Love & Care)." Top-side is the traditional hymn, "Just A Closer Walk To Thee," which is softly read by Rodgers against an interesting light-shuffle combo-chorus arrangement. "Joshua" is another fine stand from the album. Its bright-beat could make it important, too.

"PLEDGING MY LOVE" (2:31)

[Wemar BMI—Robey, Washington]

"PLEDGING MY LOVE" (2:19)

[Wemar Lion BMI—Robey, Washington]

"EARTH ANGEL" (2:54)

[Dooms BMI—Belvin, Williams, Hodge]

"GO ON HOME" (1:57)

[Griegmark BMI—Cole, Clark]

JOHNNY TILLOTSON (Cadence 1377)

SANFORD CLARK (Jamie 1153)

● "Pledging My Love," the old Johnny Ace hit, appears headed for a new chart run. Tillotson, whose "Why Do I Love You So" is still a strong chart item, offers a tender, partly multi-tracked reading. The fine Clark essay includes an intriguing combo beat. Tillotson has a strong coupler in another revival, the long-running Penguins' smash, "Earth Angel," while Clark also vies for a back-to-back hit with the haunting, folk-type affair (with a "Fool" flavor) "Go On Home." Four first-rate teen sessions.

"GOT A DATE WITH AN ANGEL" (2:02)

[Chappell ASCAP—Grey, Miller, Tunbridge, Waller]

"ALWAYS IN MY HEART" (3:34)

[Southern ASCAP—Gannon, Lecuona]

KITTY KALLEN (Columbia 41622)

● The label has culled a strong track, "Got A Date With An Angel," from the lark's recent LP, "If I Give My Heart To You," (her awhile back click). Charming oldie is given an appropriate light-beat presentation, including a fine now-and-then gimmick from the male chorus. It's got a chart look. Coupler is a tender reading of the beautiful evergreen.

JOHNNY NASH

(ABC-Paramount 10095)

B+ "NEVER MY LOVE" (2:23) [Siras ASCAP—Parker, Gohman] Young song talent is reliable (as usual) as he essays the inspirational-like romantic. Big Don Costa strings support. Fine ballad fare.

B+ "(You've Got) THE LOVE I LOVE" (2:29) [J&E ASCAP—DeMetrius] Here's Nash in slick swing form and there's solid deejay appeal in session.

TOWNSEL SISTERS (Hickory 1117)

B+ "GIVE MY LOVE TO JOEY" (1:59) [Acuff-Rose BMI—B&F Bryant] Winners of the recent WSM-Nashville talent contest show why they won as they beautifully render this tender folk-type ballad. Deck has both pop-C&W strength.

B "BLACKBERRY WINTER" (3:04) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Lindeman, Stutz] Another soft expression by the larks and they display first-prize polish.

J. JOSEPH (Gateway 531)

B+ "DREAM GIRL" (2:21) [Cristobel BMI—Joseph] Guitarist Joseph nicely plucks out the familiar-sounding theme against a soft triplet beat. One of those grow-on-you issues that could mean something.

B "HAPPY JOE" (2:04) [Cristobel BMI—Joseph] A Spanish-like theme is given a catchy arrangement.

TERRY SISTERS (20th Fox 178)

B "THERE'S A SECRET IN MY HEART" (2:31) [Delaware ASCAP—Hawelka] Pretty teaming by the larks. Gals render the attractive wistful with inviting, unhurried conviction. Appealing Sammy Fields string backing. Touching track.

B "ZACK" (2:08) [Delstone BMI—Turdy] Cute tune pays tribute to Zacherly, an Eastern TV personality who hosts horror flicks.

FIVE DELIGHTS (Abel 228)

B "THAT LOVE AFFAIR" (2:26) [Miller Songkraft BMI—Rossi, Tarter] Lead and other members present an OK rhythm date, with a rock-a-string set-up (plus sax) providing a solid sound. Zestful side.

C+ "THE THOUGHT OF LOSING YOU" (2:24) [Miller Songkraft BMI—Rossi, Tarter] The lead does a sincere vocal on the OK plaintive.

RHYTHMETTES (Coral 62186)

B "HIGH SCHOOL LOVERS" (2:17) [Mitchell ASCAP—Whitcup, Lehrman, Harris] The gals have a McGuire Sisters' sound and they agreeably recite the conventional teen sentimental.

C+ "THE SNOW QUEEN" (2:25) [Northern ASCAP—Lampert, Loring] A sprightly item from a same-title pic version of a Hans Christian Andersen tale. OK winter-time entry.

BOB BRITTAN (Rider 101)

B "TASTY LIPS" (2:05) [TeeKay BMI—Snyder, Brittan] Affable calypsoish sound from songster Brittan and pleasingly light combo-chorus backdrop.

C+ "SUDDENLY, I'M A LOVER" (2:07) [TeeKay BMI—Snyder, Brittan] The date belongs to those slick swing sessions making the rounds.

TARHEEL SLIM & LITTLE ANN (Fire 1007)

B+ "CAN'T STAY AWAY" (Part 1) (2:20) [Fire BMI—Robinson] Couple could do repeat business on their "It's Too Late" click with the groovy, low-moaning romantic chants they serve up so tantalizingly here. Good blues offering.

B+ "CAN'T STAY AWAY" (Part 2) (2:15) [Fire BMI—Robinson] Continuation of the lid.

JAMES CARONE (Siena 101)

C+ "MAMA" (2:44) [Southern ASCAP—Cherubini, Bixio] The current Connie Francis smash is given a powerhouse reading by the tenor.

C "BUONA NOTTE" (2:43) [Fairway BMI—Brout, Michaelides] Performer takes another Italian tune in an easier manner. While topside is sung entirely in Italian, this portion is read in both English and Italian.

MORT LINDSEY ORCH. (Dot 16058)

B "OH! MY PA-PA" (1:52) [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Turner, Parsons, Buckhard] The years-back hit is revived with a good band-sound-with-a-teen-beat arrangement. It figures to get deejay interest.

B "ALL THE WAY" (1:55) [Maraville ASCAP—Cahn, Van Heusen] Strictly a straight handling of the recent Frank Sinatra success. Smooth listening.

JOE ARTHUR (Seeco 6050)

B+ "THE TIMELESS TIDE" (2:28) [Mansion ASCAP—Bacharach, David] Arthur has the big-voice to carry this type of inspirational-like ballad. A lush ork-chorus shows up strong at certain emotional peaks. Side's gonna get spins.

C+ "WHEN YOU CARE ENOUGH" (2:11) [Sterling ASCAP—Wilson, Allen] Similar big ballad date here; material isn't as good, though.

TEDDY REDELL (Atco 6162)

B+ "JUDY" (2:30) [Progressive BMI—Redell] The country-flavored artist does a fine upbeat vocal and gets a noteworthy sound from the musicians. Kids will enjoy the pose by Redell and his support.

B "CAN'T YOU SEE" (2:43) [Progressive BMI—Redell] The combo comes thru with another interesting backdrop as Redell effectively asks forgiveness.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"TINTARELLA DI LUNA" (2:09)

[Southern ASCAP—Defilippi, Migliacci, Skylar]

"SKI RIDE POLKA" (2:22) [Southern ASCAP—Niessen, Reisfeld]

DOROTHY COLLINS (Top Rank 2040)

● Thrush—who hit recently with "Baciare, Baciare"—should succeed with another Italian item, "Tintarella Di Luna." The previously cut ditty is given a happy rock view, with Miss Collins sometimes multi-tracked and combo sound strong. Underlid is infectious.

"THIS I KNOW" (2:22) [Broadway ASCAP—Roberts, Katz]

"LISTEN MY LOVE" (2:18) [Broadway ASCAP—Roberts, Katz]

ROD LAUREN (RCA Victor 7720)

● Lauren's "This I Know" ballad stand can go the route of his debut success, "If I Had A Girl." Pretty opus is gentle and that's the approach of both Lauren and the Shorty Rogers' ork-chorus. "Listen My Love" also has strong chart appeal. Could get attention.

"PINK POLEMONIUMS" (2:25)

[Planetary ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning]

"SING ALONG"

(2:41)

[Pauline ASCAP—Allen]

MITCH MILLER (Columbia 41616)

● The Miller chorus—after hitting with "Do-Re-Mi"—offers two possible successors. "Pink Polemoniums" is a delightful folk-marcher which engagingly employs the tricky title and other phrases. "Sing Along" is the free-end-easy item cut awhile back by Jimmy Dean. The date was culled from an LP, "Saturday Night Sing Along With Mitch." Special sleeve contains the words to both tunes. Jocks'll love 'em both.

"MY LITTLE HONEY DRIPPER"

(1:57)

[Modern BMI—Nelson, Taub]

"CHAINS OF LOVE"

(2:34)

[Progressive BMI—Ertegun]

JOE TURNER (Atlantic 2054)

● Joe Turner, who rode back into chartsville via his "Honey Hush" revival, should stay there with both ends of his new string-backed Atlantic pairing, "My Little Honey Dripper" and "Chains Of Love." Former's a great rhythm-shuffler while the latter's a sensational beat-ballad remake of an old Turner hit. Tremendous instrumental show-cases for Joe's readily-recognizable vocal wares.

"OLYMPIA" (2:36) [Robbins ASCAP—Modugno, Migliacci]

"O SOLE MIO" (2:28) [P.D.—Di Capua]

DOMENICO MODUGNO (Decca 31071)

● The songster can climb back on U.S. charts with "Olympia," an interesting Modugno-co-cleffed item which the artist handles with his familiar individuality. He's got a strong pound-type beat for a setting. There's also a good backdrop sound most of the way in Modugno's styling of the Italian favorite, "O Sole Mio," (middle section includes a warm, almost narrative bit). Eye it.

"FOR CRYIN' OUT LOUD"

(2:20) [Ace BMI—Smith]

"BEATNIK BLUES" (2:15)

[Ace BMI—Smith]

HUEY "PIANO" SMITH (Ace 584)

● Chances are Huey "Piano" Smith's name is gonna be plastered all over the charts in the near future. Two good reasons are his newest contenders for hitdom, "For Cryin' Out Loud" and "Beatnik Blues." "Cryin'," a rousing novelty thumper that deals with "Charlie Brown" shenanigans, is pounded out in Fats Domino—"I'm In Love Again" fashion. "Beatnik" is a tremendous rafter-shaker that completes a solid teen coupling. Sock assists by the Clowns.

"LET THEM SAY" (2:12) [Milhaven, Realgone BMI—Hunter]

"IT MUST BE LOVE" (2:14) [Realgone, Milhaven BMI—Hunter]

IVORY JOE HUNTER (Goldisc 3003)

● The blues vet, Ivory Joe Hunter, bows on the recently-formed Goldisc label with a wonderfully inviting essay of a fine, self-penned teen-styled ballad tabbed "Let Them Say." Joe's warm handling of the tender romantic lyrics can put this one over the top. Hunter also takes good ballad care of another expressive romantic original, "It Must Be Love."

RICHARD TUCKER

(Columbia 41587)

B+ "LA DONNA E MOBILE" (2:10)

[P.D.—Verdi] The great tenor makes a rare singles appearance with an impressive reading of the famed aria from "Rigoletto" (side's from a complete recording of the opera). Performance and opus' melodic strength could get this off-beat waxing on the pop air.

B "QUESTA O QUELLA" (1:52)

[P.D.—Verdi] Another selection from the opera. Colorful sleeve of singer.

CHESTER McDOWALL (Duke 316)

B+ "TELL ME NOW" (2:31) [Lion

BMI—McDowall] Songster's approach to the love lyrics is straightforward and therefore quite attractive in its simplicity. Tender ballad offering with eyes for a chart position.

B+ "JOY IN MY TEARS" (2:29)

[Lion BMI—Harper, Scott] This end McDowall engages in an enticing rhythmic, romantic message. Combo-chorus are in infectious sympathy with the theme.

JIMMY WITHERSPOON (HiFi 594)

B "EVERY TIME I FEEL THE

SPRIT" (2:17) [P.D.—Traditional] The popular blues artist and combo-chorus setting supply a pleasing upbeat sound to the famed spiritual.

B "OH MARY DON'T YOU WEEP"

(1:45) [P.D.—Traditional] The Civil War item gets a nice bounce beat. Both tracks stem from Witherspoon's "Feelin' The Spirit."

LIGHTNIN' SLIM (Excella 2173)

B+ "TOM CAT BLUES" (2:45) [Excella BMI—West] Down home blues singer really wails up a storm here with his lament about an unwanted black cat. Will go over big with the blues spinners.

B "BED BUG BLUES" (2:25) [Excella BMI—West, Hicks] Slim reaches way down for this half. Side shows the true vinegary humor of authentic blues artists.

FELIX SLATKIN (Liberty 55232)

B "THE HAPPY HOBO" (1:45)

(Westmont ASCAP—Thompson) Intriguing percussion beat in this Latinish display. Those percussion instruments include a vibraphone on the tuneful opus. Side's from an LP, "Fantastic Percussion."

B "TURKISH BATH" (2:15) [Metric BMI—Slatkin] This tango leans in strings plus some effective percussive bits. Two interesting instrumental takes.

AL BOLISKA & RHYTHM PALS

(Sparton 868)

C+ "THE BALLAD OF A DYING

COWBOY" (3:05) [ASCAP—Mullay] Vocal crew effectively reveal the drama of the haunting folk-like item.

C "AL BOLISKA'S THEME (What

D'ye Mean, You Lost Your Dog)" (1:45) [ASCAP—] The Albert White crew handles the sprightly theme.

FOUR DUKES (Imperial 5653)

B "JOHN HENRY" (1:58) [Post

ASCAP—Arr. Reynolds] The famed folk opus is given an infectious R&B-styled going over, by the songsters and combo. Lively portion.

C+ "BABY WON'T YOU PLEASE

COME HOME" (1:43) [Pickwick ASCAP—Williams, Warfield] Boys take the oldie in good-humored style. Instrumental backing is swing directed (flute included).

FIVE KEYS (King 5330)

B "ROSETTA" (2:08) [Mayfair

ASCAP—Hines, Woode] Songsters give the name-song an agreeable light-beat reading. Combo has a good beat.

B "GONNA BE TOO LATE" (2:30)

[T-T BMI—Toombs, Jackson] Boys are more in the blues groove here and they deliver the easy jumper in pro style.

ETTA JAMES (Argo 5359)

B+ "GIRL OF MY DREAMS" (2:25)

[Mills ASCAP—Clapp] Mainstay ballad is revived with a mild beat accent behind the sincere warbling of the thrush. Could re-awake interest in the tune.

B+ "ALL I COULD DO WAS CRY"

(2:35) [Ro-Gor BMI—Davis] Slow, deeply moving, blue-tinged romantic is etched with an exciting dose of sincere feelings by songstress. Rates a close listen.

LANDAN SISTERS (Mercury 71576)

B "TALKING OUT OF SCHOOL"

(2:10) [E.H. Morris ASCAP—Frisch, Tobias] Teeners have a catchy-beat date from the larks. Their blend gets a fine rock-a-cha backdrop from the Belton Hendricks-directed ork. Might get good action.

C+ "SHY" (1:54) [Brenda BMI—

Otis, Hendricks] Gals manage an appropriately coy manner here.

RENE HALL ORCH. (Del-Fi 4135)

B+ "THE UNTOUCHABLES" (2:47)

B+ "LA CUBALIBRA" (2:50)

[Maravilla BMI—Kuhn, Casey] Catchy Latin theme is given a sprightly novelty combo outing. Also included are handclaps, vocal shouts and a deep voice that makes now-and-then comments. Also has chances.

ROBERT T. SMITH (Bobbin 118)

C+ "WORKIN' A GAIN" (2:34)

[Lyco BMI—Smith] Smith's got money in his pocket and pulls no punches in telling the world about his new found luck. Deck's got a groovy, contagious rhythm.

C+ "TELL ME WHAT IN THE WORLD" (3:22) [Lyco BMI—Smith] Chanter is deep in the miseries of a sad love affair on this blues cut.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"THIS LAND IS YOUR LAND" (2:49) [Ludlow BMI—Guthrie]
"WHO'S GONNA BUY YOU RIBBONS" (2:55)

[Combine BMI—Clayton]

PAUL CLAYTON (Monument 416)

● The fine inspirational-patriotic oldie, "This Land Is Your Land," is given an excellent thumping-march reading by Paul Clayton and his choral-instrumental accompaniment. Top quality all-around performance. Can move way out. Warm, sensitive effort by Paul and the crew on the beautiful folk affair, "Who's Gonna Buy You Ribbons (When I'm Gone)".

"JENNY LOU" (2:30) [Mappa ASCAP—McIntyre, Olofson]
"PASSIN' THROUGH" (2:20) [Mappa ASCAP—McIntyre, Olofson]

SONNY JAMES (NRC 050)

● The former Capitol songster bows on NRC with a strong folk-like plaintive, "Jenny Lou." Tale's about a man scheduled to be hung for murder and his concern for girl involved in the affair. It's got a folkish sound that scores. Coupler is a good-humored affair that tells of a fella who avoids walking-down-the-aisle just in the nick of time.

"MADISON TIME" (Part 1) [Cromwell ASCAP—Morrison, Bryant]
"MADISON TIME" (Part 2) [Cromwell ASCAP—Morrison, Bryant]

EDDIE MORRISON & RAY BRYANT COMBO (Columbia 41628)

The Cash Box Best Bets

JERRY LEE LEWIS (Sun 337)

B+ "BABY, BABY, BYE BYE" (2:05) [Knox Crystal BMI—Lewis, Smith] The performer has a contagious outing here. The fine Lewis essay is enhanced by a delectable combo-chorus sound. Could be a big one.

B+ "OLD BLACK JOE" (2:00) [Hi Lo BMI—Lewis] An even faster, honky-tonkish approach to the old folk favorite. It's a strong sound, but title may see programming difficulties.

FRANK DE VOL (Columbia 41620)

B+ "LA MONTANA (If She Should Come To You)" (3:30) [Hollis BMI—Alguero, Moreu, Wilder] A striking ballad is played ala Percy Faith's "Summer Place" smash and the De Vol ork could have a big one, too. Look out for this session.

B+ "THE KEY THEME" (2:50) [Cromwell ASCAP—Zabka] From a forthcoming TV'er, "Turn The Key Gently," comes a pretty main-title presented in a lush manner.

PETE BENNETT (Cupid 62314)

B+ "DARK EYES"—The sturdy folk tune gets a romping rock treatment. A sizzling sax and organ head the instrumental portion, while femmes chant along with excitement. Could go over big.

B "SWINGIN'" [Ecstasy BMI—Salaam, Howard] A milder date with an easy swing attitude.

EARL BOSTIC ORCH. (King 5317)

B+ "ELEGIE" (2:07) [P.D.—Mas-senet] The familiar classical piece is taken for a fine rock ride by the saxist and his ork. Side's got solid teen sock plus melodic appeal. Could score.

B+ "OUT OF NOWHERE" (2:30) [Famous ASCAP—Green, Heyman] Slower, but still bright work on the sturdy. Two first-rate teen attractions.

WADE FLEMONS (Vee-Jay 344)

B+ "WOOPS NOW" (2:20) [Con-rad BMI—Oliver, Grant] Flemons and the combo-femme chorus indulge in a bright rhythm bouncer. He recently made noise with "What's Happening" and could grab some coin here.

B "EASY LOVIN'" (2:16) [Con-rad BMI—Stone] This affable blueser has cute play between songster and larks.

FRANKIE LAINE (Columbia 41613)

B+ "ET VOILA" (2:49) [Leeds ASCAP—Curtis, Barclay, Legrand] Laine joins the current swing single trend with a delectable outing. With Les Brown providing the solid swing backdrop, the songster does a joyous job on the slick ditty. In for solid spins.

B+ "ST. JAMES INFIRMARY" (3:11) [Gotham ASCAP—Primrose] The classic gets a striking portrayal from the artist. Can also make lots of station time.

JOHNNY SMITH (Royal Roost 701)

B+ "ONCE IN A WHILE" (3:01) [Miller ASCAP—Edwards, Green] Guitarist Smith eases smoothly over the sturdy and gets a lush setting. First-rate mood spin. Label is the Roulette subsid.

B "MY DEAR LITTLE SWEET-HEART" (3:40) [Planetary ASCAP—Smith] Another pretty softie. Both lids are from an LP titled after this cut.

AL ALBERTS (MGM 12884)

B "SOUTH OF THE BORDER" (2:20) [Shapiro Bernstein ASCAP—Kennedy, Carr] A cheerful swing reading of the oldie by the former Four Aces' lead and Ray Ellis ork. Side's got lots of deejay appeal.

B "NO LOVE BUT YOUR LOVE" (3:25) [Artists ASCAP—Schroeder, Gold] Another in the recent string of dramatic pop versions of the "Veste La Giuba" aria from "Pagliacci."

JESSIE BELVIN (Class 267)

B+ "I'M CONFESSIN'" (2:28) [Recordo BMI—Belvin] The late songster invitingly handles the pretty affectionate and is nicely backed by a femme chorus and string ork.

B "DEEP IN MY HEART" (2:03) [Recordo BMI—Belvin] More easy-to-take vocalizing and ork-chorus setting. Tune is not the Sigmund Romberg standard.

ELOISE TRIO (Decca 31047)

B+ "CHI CHI MERENGUE" (2:45) [Deekay ASCAP—Lewis] A fine merengue beat from the combo is fronted by exciting wails from the songsters particularly the artist who gives-out with a bird-call-like falsetto. Off-beat sound that could come thru.

C+ "CALYPSO ISLAND" (3:12) [Planetary ASCAP—Simms] A calypso item delivered in familiar fashion.

STRANGERS (Titan 1704)

B+ "YOUNG MAGGIE" (2:10) [Dolly Bee BMI—Arr. Hill, Kirby, Lynch, Marino, Lee] A teen-rock comeback for the oldie in the Johnny & The Hurricanes' manner. Boys supply plenty of punch and could make noise.

B "BOOGIE MAN" (2:14) [Dolly Bee BMI—DeMartino, Lee] This novelty blueser is highlighted by a strong percussion solo. Dot Records distributes.

DOLLY SMITH (Buzz 108)

C+ "CHATTANOOGA CHA-CHA" (2:28) [Feist ASCAP—Warren, Gordon] Evergreen works-out nicely as a soft, teen-styled cha-cha. Thrush agreeably warbles against Bobby Smith beat. OK spin issue.

C+ "MEMORIES OF YOU" (2:18) [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Blake, Razaf] Moody beat-ballad version of another oldtimer.

JERRY FRASIER (Pel 301)

B+ "I'D RATHER DIE YOUNG" (2:15) [Randy Smith ASCAP—Smith, Wood, Vaughn] Frasier attractively revives the one-time Hill-topper hit and receives an interesting full ork-chorus sound backdrop. Has ability to move.

B+ "A MILLION TEARS AGO" (2:20) [Bayou BMI—Rentz, Frasier, Taylor] This pretty ballad gets a similar treatment and it also bears watching. Two good showings.

LUCKY CARMICHAEL (Shar 4)

B "I'M COMIN' HOME" (2:15) [Shar BMI—Carmichael] Carmichael and combo offer a neat upbeat blues-styled sound. Deck's got dance/listen appeal.

B "LONESOME & LONELY" (2:20) [Shar BMI—Carmichael] Artist shows basic-blues finesse on this end.

KIMM CHARNEY (Dot 16061)

B+ "ROSEMARY" (2:15) [Republic BMI—Lane, Clare] The oft-cut affectionate is appealingly rendered by the singer against a pleasant rock-a-string-cha-cha-femme chorus setting. Lots of teen-ballad attraction here.

B "MISS TWIST-ABOUT" (2:03) [Jat BMI—LeGault] An infectious rocker and from both Charney and backdrop come exciting sounds.

ELMO JAMES (Fire 1016)

B "THE SKY IS CRYING" (2:47) [Fire BMI—James] James gets an earthy blues touch, carving out this slow, languid lament with soulful passion. Good side for the blues markets.

B "HELD MY BABY LAST NIGHT" (2:50) [Fire BMI—James] Another potent blues wail. James' Broomdusters have a solid feel to their music. Blues jocks will spin these efforts.

MOON MULLICAN (King 5328)

B+ "NEW JOLE BLON" (1:52) [Lois-Jill & Range BMI—Nathan, Mullican] A very interesting and effective bayou opus is given a colorful reading by the C&W vocalist and backdrop. This sound could step-out.

B "JAMBALAYA" (2:15) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Williams] The standard—currently enjoying new disk attention—receives a lively reading from the performer Mullican and ork-chorus. Fine version of the ditty.

AL JOHNSON (Ric 967)

B "CARNIVAL TIME" (2:27) [Rou BMI—Johnson, Russino] Everybody's having a good time according to Johnson, who sells the infectious rhythm tune with loads of happy feelings.

C+ "GOOD LOOKIN'" (2:14) [Tye BMI—Douglas, Allen, Johnson] Another similar outing.

AL BROWN'S TUNETOPPERS (Amy 804)

B+ "THE MADISON" (2:32) [Aim BMI — Brown] A new teen that's keeping the kids busy in the Wash.-D.C.-Balt. area is explained with a good beat by songster-caller Cookie Brown and combo. Could catch-on.

B "MO' MADISON" (3:55) [Aim BMI—Brown] The lively dance is explained further.

LANCE FORTUNE (Signature 12030)

B+ "BE MINE" (1:50) [Peer International BMI — Menke, Panas, Luth, Marcel, Stellman] The contagious rock-a-string cha-cha session is a hit in England and could come-thru here, too. Songster Fortune offers an interesting vocal against a sparkling ork-chorus arrangement. Eye it.

B "ACTION" (1:45) [Southern ASCAP — Peacock, Berry] Fairly unusual sound in this spiritual-flavored inspirational jumper.

HUELYN DUVALL (Challenge 59069)

B+ "BOOM BOOM BABY" (1:50) [Golden West Melodies BMI—Burgess] Duvall and the combo-chorus offer a solid version of the tune that's a smash for Crash Craddock in Australia (Columbia releases it here, too). Could be an important sock sound.

C+ "PUCKER PAINT" (2:08) [Golden West Melodies BMI—Wolfe] Lively presentation that hasn't as good a sound as the top-half.

SIR CHAUNCEY (Warner Bros. 5150)

B+ "BEAUTIFUL OBSESSION" (2:08) [Aut ASCAP—Freeman] The Chauncey strings do a handsome job on the attractive theme. It's an instrumental that's got a chance for strong chart success.

B+ "TENDERFOOT" (2:07) [Aut ASCAP — Freeman] The ork presents more of a teen-beat stint here, and side has lots of rock-a-string color. Also worth attention.

JOHNNY RUSSELL (MGM 12872)

B+ "LONESOME BOY" (2:15) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Russell, Alston] An effective country-styled middle-beat plaintive is strikingly handled by songster Russell and exciting guitars-chorus. Can measure-up to chart sales.

B+ "BABY WON'T YOU TELL ME SO" (1:57) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant] Tune has haunting melodic touches and reading here contains a contagious sound. Can also move.

DANNY VALENTINO (MGM 12881)

B+ "A MILLION TEARS" (2:49) [Vera First ASCAP—Lewis, Weisman] The singer makes a good rock-a-string ballad stand. Disenchanted has teen appeal and the Ray Ellis ork-chorus backing is effective. Has that chart look.

B+ "BIOLOGY" (2:30) [Empress ASCAP—Edwards, Wayne] A jumper about biology, boys and girls. Catchy sound. Can also step out.

BLUE ANGELS (Palette 5038)

B+ "IN THE SUN" (1:58) [Zodiac BMI—Rains] A fine sax-featured sound in this soft and lazy instrumental. It's one of those dates that can catch-on after sufficient exposure.

C+ "SOBBIN'" (2:09) [Zodiac BMI — Rolle, Owen] Larks chant softly in an otherwise similar, but less effective date.

RICHARD HAYES (Columbia 41586)

B+ "TAKE ANOTHER STEP" (2:40) [Melrose ASCAP—Shuman, Garson] The pro songster's first for the label in an infectious, medium-beat country-styled romancer. A fine backdrop from the Frank DeVol ork-chorus. Hayes can do things with side.

B "MISSING ANGEL" (2:25) [C.N. Daniels ASCAP—Tepper, Bennett] Performer turns a pleasant soft-beat ballad date. Pretty tune.

JACK LARSON (Fraternity 865)

B+ "DRIFTING DOWN THE RIVER" (2:03) [Buckeye ASCAP—Evans, Carlson] A pleasing, evergreen-sounding opus is attractively styled. Larson offers an agreeable vocal against a good shuffle-banjo sound and chorus. Could catch-on.

C+ "AUTUMN HEART" (2:05) [Buckeye ASCAP — Connell] More of a teen-beat flavoring here, with a theme that's obviously out-of-season.

ALLIE OOPS GROUP (Caprice 102)

B+ "DINOSAUR" (1:59) [True Blue & Surrey ASCAP—Stanton, Fotine] Instrumentalists get-off an intriguing beat in their rock description of a "dinosaur" trod. Saxs have good things to say, too. Can score.

B "BLOOP BLOOP" (1:09) [Check & Fairlane BMI—Gallo, Cari, Ford] A brighter novelty sound and many a teener should find the arrangement a beat treat. Label is handled by Canadian-American.

SINGING REINDEER (Capitol 4353)

B+ "I WANNA BE AN EASTER BUNNY" (2:24) [Music Please-Algrace BMI—Please, Nelson, Regan] The gimmick voices—who made Xmas noise with "The Happy Reindeer"—offer a catchy Easter entry. Here, Nervous wants to be an Easter bunny despite the fact that the other reindeer say he's already a reindeer. A sure kiddie charmer. Could be an Easter click.

B "THE HAPPY BIRTHDAY SONG" (2:22) [Rap ASCAP—Plasted, Rustigian] More moppet-directed fun from the voices.

ELMER LUSH (Gizmo 601)

B "SERENADE OF THE BELLS" (2:28) [Melrose ASCAP—Goodhart, Twomey, Urbano] Generally interesting slow-cha-cha version of the years-back hit. The Lush vocal is pleasantly easy.

C+ "TAVERN SONG" (2:00) [Le Fors BMI—LeFors] A medium-beat item about a fella who likes to live-it-up.

ANDRE POPP ORCH. & JACQUES BREL (Columbia 41570)

B+ "THE WALTZ WITH A THOUSAND BEATS" (2:57) [Leeds ASCAP—Brel] A catchy waltz tune receives a fine Continental touch from the Popp ork, and strikingly displayed chorus. One of those things that could make it.

B "THE WALTZ WITH A THOUSAND BEATS" (3:47) [Leeds ASCAP—Brel] European artist Brel sings the lyric version, (in French), telling of the various waltz beats and their relation to love (the arrangement cleverly changes beats).

JUNIOR & HIS FRIENDS (ABC-Paramount 10089)

B+ "WHO'S OUT PET, ANNETTE!" (1:50) [Spanka BMI — Anka] Rock-a-cha cutie salutes the Buena Vista Records' star.

B "A.B.C. LOVE" (2:02) [Spanka BMI—Anka] Similar arrangement features a kiddie songster. Tune is catchy.

JOHNNY & JAMMERS (Dart 131)

C+ "YOU KNOW I LOVE YOU" (2:45) [Glad Big Bopper BMI—Winter] Songster Johnny & Jammers' musicians get an OK country-blues sound. Should be appreciated by the kids.

C "SCHOOL DAY BLUES" (1:55) [Glad Big Bopper BMI—Winter] Theme is expressed with a sock-rock attack.

VERNON GREEN (Dooto 454)

B+ "BEHIND THE DOOR" [Authentic—Williams] With the Medallions in close-in harmony support, Green takes this poignant ballad for a slow, tearful ride.

B "ROCKET SHIP" [Authentic—Williams] Green cuts loose with interesting novelty words set to a contagious Latin beat. Side's got an attention-getting sound.

THE FIVE BELLS (Clock 1017)

B+ "MY PLEDGE TO YOU" (2:52) [Lowell-Selbonn BMI — Myles] Vocal group serves up a polished performance of a touching beat-ballad affair. Dual voice effect, recitation behind singing, is used to good advantage. Inviting effort.

B "IT'S YOU" (2:02) [Lowell-Selbonn BMI—Myles] Here all hands join in the raucous merry-making here. Rhythm feel is teen hooper asset.

TOMMY KANE (Dean 503)

C+ "IN A SHANTY IN OLD SHANTY TOWN" (2:29) [Witmark ASCAP—Young, Siras, Little] The oldie receives a fairly interesting rendition. Kane sings against some good guitar effects. Might get some attention.

C "O-H-O-H-OH ROCK" (2:19) [Dean ASCAP — Larson] Often teen-wise combo sounds is the feature here.

VINCE EVERETT (Town 1964)

B "THE LANE OF NO RETURN" [Jalo Zelman BMI—Gale, Lawrence, Zelman, Cabell] Everett nicely handles the good teen romantic and receives solid chanting sounds from a male chorus and effective percussion bits from the combo. Could be active.

B "BUTTERCUP" [Jalo Zelman BMI—Gale, Lawrence, Zelman] Attractive calypso-flavored date also gets a strong sound from the chorus.

NICK de FRANCIS (Dwain 815)

B "DON'T ASK" (2:28) [Beechwood BMI—Morin] The songster nicely swings it against one of Richard Wess' ("Mack The Knife") volatile swing arrangements. Jocks'll take to side.

B "IN OTHER WORDS" (2:30) [Almanac ASCAP — Howard] After an elaborate opener, de Francis attractively styles the beautiful song. Can also make-the-deejay grade.

TOMMY ROE & SATINS (Mark 1V)

B "I GOT A GIRL" (2:16) [Eager BMI—Roe] Both label and vocalist Roe bow with an inviting medium-beat tribute to the gal. Combo-chorus is sound-wise.

C+ "CAVEMAN" (1:54) [Eager BMI—Roe] Ordinary semi-belt novelty about a guy's meeting with jungle weirdos. Musicians again offer a good sound.

RON HAYDOCK & BOPPERS (Cha Cha 704)

B "MAYBELLINE" (2:30) [Arc BMI—Berry, Fratto, Freed] A famed Chuck Berry hit is revived with pro rock zest by vocalist Haydock and Boppers' musicians. Has solid hop appeal.

C+ "BABY SAY BYE-BYE" (2:17) [Den-Del BMI — Haydock] A slower pounder here and also effectively in the teen groove.

CHICAGO:

Since his return from the recent ARMADA conclave in New York, E. Abner, Vee-Jay—Abner Records, has been practically working around the clock on shipments on the several hit singles he has. Jimmy Reed's "Baby, What You Want Me To Do" and "Just A Little Bit" by Roscoe Gordon (Vee-Jay) are climbing on all charts. Other decks making it for Ab are Dee Clark's newie "Cling A Ling" b/w "At My Front Door," Donny Elbert's "Will You Ever Be Mine" slipping into the charmed circle and Bill Henderson's "Bye Bye Blackbird" is beginning to show. . . . Jack Tracy, A&R director of Argo Records, buzzed to info that he, Lennie Chess, Phil Chess and Max Cooperstein will host a swingin' soiree, 3/15, at Frank Holziend's Blue Note jazz palace to intro the label's new find, jazz trumpeter Art Farmer, and his combo. . . . Capitol's Barney Fields notes that sales on "Home From The Hills" by The Kingston Trio have zoomed here since their veddy successful stint at Mister Kelly's. Oscar & George Marienthal tell us there were many SRO evenings at Kelly's. Other Capitol sides worth watching, according to Barney, are "Down By The River Side" by Les Compagnons De La Chanson, "Candy" by The Four Freshman, "You Always Hurt The One You Love" by lovely Kay Starr, and "Till Tomorrow" by Janice Harper. . . . Decca's Paul Baio tells us Decca's hot slicings this week are Domenico Modugno's "O Sole Mio," "Loneliness" by The Kalin Twins, and "Is It Wrong" by Webb Pierce. . . . Sam Cerami of Top Rank Records is dashing around town these days with Georgie Auld's "Mr. Lucky" version on Jaro Records, and "Tintarella Di Luna" by Sonny Lester. Both are showing well. . . . Jack White of Summit Distribis infos that Frank Giacalone (formerly of Coral) joined their staff last week, and will handle radio promo and sales. Jack and Frank are plugging away with Annette's Vista single "O Dio Mio" and her current LP "Annette Sings Anka." Other Summit swingers are Connie Stevens' Warner Bros. waxing "16 Reasons" and Bill Haley's "Tamiami." . . . Publicity gal Bettye Burton signed on as personal manager to former deejay J. J. JeRue, who was recently pacted by Apex Records. . . . Tony Galgano and Reuben Lawrence, Record Distributors, are busy as bees these days with Audio Fidelity's #2 prepack deal. Both will be at ringside when The Limelighters (Electra Records) open at Mister Kelly's 3/14. And a happy St. Pat's birthday to you, Tony Galgano. . . . Heartiest conerats to M. S. Distribis' Vic Faraci and his lovely Frau on the birth of a bouncing baby boy 3/1, Jimmy. The "new release" weighed in at 8 lbs., 2 oz. Vic reminds us to watch for Buddy Greco's new Epic LP "My Buddy," which was waxed live at Le Bistro, where Buddy is currently packing 'em in. Two singles which look good, according to Vic, are "How Much" by The Skyliners (Calico Records), and Jimmy Breedlove's "Waiting For You" (Epic). . . . RCA-Victor's Stan Pat is excited about Rod Lauren's newie "Listen My Love." Stan reminds us that Rod clicked very big several months ago with his debut deck, and should really make it with this one. . . . Ed Yalowitz buzzed with the news that Garmisa Distribis recently took over midwest distribution of 2 big labels, Grand Award and Westminster. 3 singles clicking well here, according to Eddie, are "Cherry Pie" by Skip & Flip (Time Records), "Mountain Of Love" by Harold Dorman (Rita), and Joe Damiano's "Tree In The Meadow" (Chancellor). . . . Danny Driscoll, rep for Morty Craft's United Telefilm diskery just returned from Cincy. He tells us "Mr. Lonely" by The Vidals is already bustin' wide open in 5 major markets, and Sonny Gale's "What Do You Want To Make Those Eyes At Me For" looks like it'll follow suit. Danny further relates that deejays are clamoring for copies of Myrna March's initial release "Where It Hurst Most." . . . Word comes from John Quinlan that WCFL's popular deejay Jack Karey again received the Veteran Hospital Award at their annual dinner, 3/3, and was roundly applauded by all for his untiring efforts on behalf of hospitalized vets. . . . Visitor last week was Johnny Raphael, who recently signed to record for Mercury. His initial waxing for Mercury is "School Of Love" b/w "Let Me Walk You Home." . . . The effervescent Pepper Pots are making mucho noise hereabouts with their new Crystal novelty click "Ingemar" (The Wallowing Swede). The versatile group consists of Dave Mills, Johnny Dee, Hal Hanson, and Adolph Litrenta. . . . George Ricci, Shar Records, reports that Lucky Carmichael's newie "I'm Coming Home" is catching on fast here. Danny Overbea's "With All My Love," on the Shep label, is already going well in Chi and St. Louis.

LOS ANGELES:

Gary Webb's "Drum City," on the Del-Fi banner, getting immediate reaction locally. Del-Fi is now distributed by A&A in L.A. . . . New Rendezvous Records pactees, The Glenns, out with their initial pairing—"Chapel In The Moonlight" b/w "More & More." . . . George Sherlock handling national promotion for Louis Prima & Kelly Smith and working on their new Dot slice "When My Baby Smiles At Me." Duo are currently appearing at the Moulin Rouge for a 1 month stint. . . . Jules Losch back from a swing through the 11 western states with The Ames Bros. "China Doll" deck, and their "Hello Amigos" package. . . . Shorty Rogers and The Giants doing a two-weeker at the Sanbah Room. . . . United Artists Records very enthusiastic over the debut coupling of singer Johnny McKay—"After You" and "I Whisper Your Name." . . . Sonny Burke, West Coast A & R chief for Decca, skyng to New York for conferences with the A & R dept. . . . Dot Records looking for a possible million-seller with the new Billy Vaughn LP, "Theme From A Summer Place." . . . Youngster Johnny Aragon hitting the market with his debut waxing on Airlok Records, "Someone." . . . Mike Purcell, of Cupid Records, announces the pacting of Skip Garner to an exclusive contract with his initial offering due out soon. . . . Chirp Dee Robbins, set to wax Richard Blalock's new tune, "You're Not There, You," for Blalock's Crystallaire label. . . . Capitol pactee, Gene Barry, due to start cutting his first album for the diskery next week. Artists' single recently

VAN STRICKLAND (Judson 7001)

● Strickland can collect chart coin with his cute and catchy session, "Gotta Get A Date." Songster's fine light touch is very affably supported by the combo-chanting femme chorus. Deck is already kicking up a chart fuss. Underlid is solid account of a lovely romantic. Label is a Palette Records' affiliate.

Crystalette artists, the Optimists, getting solid air-play in the Southland on "I'm Laughing At Myself." . . . The oldie "Summit Ridge Drive," revived by Billy Carter on Challenge and causing good initial reaction, according to Mel Bly. . . . Lark Connie Stevens hitting all the national charts with her Warner Bros. effort, "Sixteen Reasons."

HERE AND THERE:

GARY WEBB

PAUL BRUNO

CHESTER McDOWELL

PHILADELPHIA—Kay Woodard informs that Paul Knowles, Gen. Mgr. of Raymond Rosen's Victor division, has already ordered 50,000 of Elvis' next deck (and he hasn't even heard it yet!). . . . Matty Singer over at David Rosen, types that Mercury's blazin' with Johnny Preston's "Cradle Of Love," Dinah Washington's "It Could Happen To You" and June Valli's "Apple Green"; Vee-Jay with Jimmy Reed's "Baby What You Want Me To Do"; Leader (Kapp's subsid) with Brian Hyland's "Rosemary" and Chancellor with Joe Damiano's "Kiss Me"—"Tree In The Meadow" coupling. . . . Fran Murphy, at Ed S. Barsky, sez that the hot newcomers include Sammy Masters' "Rockin' Red Wing" (Lode), the Videls' "Mister Lonely" (JDS), the Fidelities' "Walk With The Wind" (Sir) and Clyde McPhatter's "Think Me A Kiss" (MGM). . . . Hot new LP's with Chips' Bob Heller are "Walt Disney Presents Mother Goose Nursery Rhymes" and "Donald Duck & His Friends," the original soundtrack of "Toby Tyler" and "Annette Sings Anka." He adds that Frank Brunson can have a smasheroo in his Gee waxing of "When You Were Sweet Sixteen." . . . We hear that the Jaye Brothers and Sylia Saynt, Wynne recording artists, appeared at The Erie Social Club and really broke up the place. Sylia's latest release is "Down By The Riverside."

HOUSTON—Edward Frank, who previously worked with a host of labels, has been selected by Don Robey to do A&R work for his outfit. Franks is prepping material and arrangements for sessions with Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown who's currently hot with "Just Before Dawn" (Peacock). The Duke gang reportedly swamped with orders on the new Little Jr. Parker slice, "Next Time" and "You're On My Mind" and Chester McDowell's "Tell Me Now" and "Joy In My Tears."

MIAMI—Bob Ancell and Al Jacobs, Mgrs. of new Coral pactee, Paul Bruno, signed an exclusive booking contract for the artist, with GAC, via Frank Henshaw. Paul's currently in town readying his new nite club act. . . . The 'pitch from Mitch' Manning, this week, goes to Annette's "O D'o Mio" (Vista) and Mitzi Gaynor's "I Don't Regret A Thing."

IT'S 'MADISON TIME' ON COLUMBIA!

Wildfire couldn't spread faster than "THE MADISON"—the contagious new 1960 dance craze that's breaking out coast-to-coast as the biggest epidemic since the hula hoop.

Columbia's out front with the "must" version of this hip square-dance (teen-age style) that's definitely not for squares. The Ray Bryant ("Little Susie") Combo provides dancers with the driving "Madison Time" beat—Parts I & II—and there's a swingin' ad-lib assortment of crazy "Madison Time" calls. Step-by-step illustrations for "The Basic Madison," plus such interpolations as "The Wilt Chamberlin Hook," "The Jackie Gleason," and "The Rifleman," are all printed on the sleeve.

This is the REALLY BIG dance record of the year! 4-41628

John Doerfer Resigns From F. C. C.; Rep. Bennett Questions Practices of ABC Network and Dick Clark

WASHINGTON, D.C. — John C. Doerfer resigned last week as chairman of the Federal Communications Commission at the request of President Eisenhower. The resignation arose out of Doerfer's admittal to the House Special Investigating Committee that he and his wife were guests of George B. Storer for six nights aboard the yacht of the head of the Miami-located Storer Broadcasting chain. Doerfer told the subcommittee that he didn't see "anything wrong" in his actions and that he was free to choose both his friends and his activities with them. As for the six day trip, he said he had purchased tickets from a commercial airline, but had been "prevailed" upon by Storer to fly down to Miami in his private plane. Storer, Doerfer said, agreed to take the tickets (worth $214) and turn them over to charity.

Doerfer is the third major figure to resign under pressure from the investigations, and the second member to be forced off the F.C.C. Two years ago, Richard A. Mack resigned from the F.C.C. under indictment on charges of conspiring to influence the award of a TV channel. The other was Sherman Adams.

The resignation had come within twenty-four hours after Doerfer had conferred with President Eisenhower. The President, in a letter, called Doerfer's resignation "a wise move." Despite his resignation Doerfer maintained he still had the right to choose his friends, but in a letter to the President he said he wanted "to avoid possible embarrassment to you and your administration."

Following Doerfer's resignation the President appointed Frederick W. Ford, a West Virginian Republican who has been a member of the F.C.C. since 1957, as chairman. He takes office Monday, when Doerfer's resignation becomes effective.

Upon his appointment, Ford issued a statement that the "problems facing the commission today are more serious than at any time in its history," adding that he was "sure solutions can be found and we are determined to find them."

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Dick Clark, who appears to be the subcommittee's next witness, was the subject of a conflict between chairman Ören Harris and committee member John Bennett. During testimony by FTC head Earl W. Kintner last week, Bennett referred to evidence gathered concerning Clark's involvement in various firms and gifts received by Clark.

Harris thought the Bennett disclosures about Clark were not due until the subcommittee had finished its preliminary investigation of Clark. Bennett, however, said there was "plenty of evidence" available to get Clark to testify on, and wondered why he had not been called. Rep. John Moss agreed with Harris that the Clark case needed further study.

Bennett charged that the American Broadcasting Company had received a 7 cent "royalty" on each "Dick Clark Record-Carrying Case" manufactured by a company owned jointly by Clark, Tony Mammarella, Clark's former producer, and Edward S. Barsky, a Philadelphia record distributor. Mammarella had resigned from his ABC post when ABC had asked him to sever all connections with outside firms. Barsky was one of the first to be cited by the FTC in complaints charging payola to disk jockeys.

Bennett demanded that not only Clark, but ABC officials be summoned to testify before the committee. He said that ABC officials should explain the "royalty" and to say whether they had actually investigated Clark's activities. "We need an explanation not only from Clark but also by his network. If the network's "only investigation was the acceptance of his affidavit, it would appear to be casual and superficial," Bennett said.

The affidavit showed that Clark had received from a record distributor a fur stole, a ring and a necklace for Mrs. Clark. The affidavit put the estimated value at $3400, and showed further that Clark had "insisted on raying" for the stole, that he had been told it cost $1000 and that he had given the distributor $300. "That was a net gain of $700 for Mr. Clark," Bennett said. Continuing, Bennett stated that the seventeen music and record companies set up by Clark were to enable him to take a 25 percent capital gains on his income tax instead of treating income as regular income. Clark's affidavit to ABC stated that he had divested himself of all outside interests.

Bennett continued saying that Clark had apparently engaged in a "refined type of payola," adding that "If we're really going to expose the evils of payola we're going to have to do more than call in a few small frv disk jockeys. The fact is that Clark is one of the two or three boys who broadcast nation-wide."

Concerning ABC's collection of royalties from the Clark record-carrying case, Bennett said that he did not know whether the "royalties would be actually illegal" but "it is certainly a questionable practice." This situation, Bennett continued, raised the question whether the Government should license the networks because the FCC had no control of them, only of individual stations.

An ABC spokesman in New York said that there was no official network comment on Bennett's charges.

In conclusion, Bennett stated "It is not necessary to make a federal case. Clark should be brought down here so we can get at the facts which is our purpose of drafting any legislation that may be needed." Robert W. Lishman, chief counsel for the committee, said the case was "open and active but not yet ready for a hearing."

FTC Payola Charges Against 10 More Firms

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The FTC last week lodged payola complaints against 10 more firms: United Artists Records; Astor Records; State Record Distributors and Whirling Disc Distributors, Cincinnati; Indiana State Record Distributors, Indianapolis; Ric Records; Mutual Distributors, Boston; All-State New Jersey, Newark; Roberts Record Distributors, and Interstate Supply Company, St. Louis; All the firms were accused of payments to TV-radio deejays and, in addition, Roberts, Astor, State, and Whirling Disc were accused of payola to other station personnel.

Rehearsal

PHILADELPHIA—Swan recording star Freddie Cannon (l) teams up with songwriters Frank Slay (c) and Bob Crews to rehearse their new song which he recorded this month. Slay and Crexe penned Cannon's big hit, "Talahassee" as well as "Okefenokee" and his current single, "Boston."

Very popular in England, two singles and one album on the best-selling charts there, Cannon has accepted an invitation for a three-week tour of the British Isles in May.

Chi TV Show Fetes Presley

CHICAGO—Stan Pat, radio & television representative for RCA-Victor in this area, reported last week that NBC's hour long "Chicago Bandstand" record hop show, via WNBQ-TV, devoted its entire time Thursday, March 3, exclusively to Elvis Presley in conjunction with his release from the Army. All of his previous recordings, including singles and EP's were showcased during the show, according to David Hull, emcee of the show. Morrie Streit of NBC is producer of the "Chicago Bandstand".

3 More Elected To ASCAP

NEW YORK—The election of Linda Babits and Kenenth Louis Gaburo, both serious pianists and composers, and lyric writer Ernest R. Hill to ASCAP has been announced by president Stanley Adams.

Rhapsody Sings Cineramas

STANFORD, CONN.—The Cineramas, a singing foursome, have been signed to Rhapsody Records, prexy Harold J. Sullivan has announced. Group's first for the label is "Cryin' For You" b/w "I'm Sorry Baby."

Dot Enters Classical Field

HOLLYWOOD—Dot Records has made its first move toward the development of a classical line by obtaining exclusive rights to record commercially, the Nashville Symphony Orchestra under the direction of its conductor and musical director, Willis Wood.

Contracts were signed by Randy Wood, president of Dot Records, and Albert Werthen, president of the Nashville Symphony Association. The initial Dot recording session is scheduled to take place March 27 at Ryman Auditorium in Nashville with Wood and Dot vice president, Tom Mack, supervising.

This will mark the debut on records of the Nashville Symphony Orchestra, now in its fourteenth season as well as Dot Records' entry into the classical field of recorded music.

Randy Wood, a supporter of the Nashville Symphony Association since 1952, stated he has long been interested in world-wide promotion of the association's symphonic orchestra.

Wood further declared that it is his intention to popularize classical music by creating an audience comparable in size to that which now exists for popular and folk music.

Roulette Extends Dealer LP Plan

NEW YORK—Joe Kolsky, executive vice-president of Roulette Records, announced last week the extension to March 31 of the label's current dealer sales plan tabbed "Operation Clean-Up." The plan, in which the dealer can return $1 worth of "dead," useless merchandise on any label for every $5 worth of Roulette albums he purchases got under way February 15 and was scheduled to end the 15th of this month. According to Kolsky, this 5 for $1 deal has been a "tremendous boon to the dealers in alleviating their constant inventory problems that extending the closing date to give the dealers more time became inevitable." As a result of this program," stated Kolsky, "we are experiencing the heaviest volume sales in albums since first going into the album business." Since the plan includes both the new Roulette releases for February, March as well as the catalog and takes in Pico, Roost, Forum and Gee Records the dealers purchases have not been confined, the plan has enabled them to buy the cream of the catalog while at the same time they dumped the unwanted singles and LPs on all labels.

Kolsky also went on to report that the heaviest reorders on the new February/March LPs have been on "Once More With Feeling," Billy Eckstine featuring Billy May and His Orch.; "Dance Along With Basie"—Count Basie and His Orch.; "That Kind Of Woman"—Joe Williams; "Island Paradise"—William Kealoha; the Roost album of "My Dear Little Sweetheart"—featuring Johnny Smith, and the Pico LP of "Leroy Anderson In Latin-America" with Marco Rizo, his Piano and Orch.

Decca Country Roster Grows

NEW YORK—Decca Records, for many years a major factor in the country field, continues to maintain its strong position on the country music scene.

The Decca roster of country chart-makers, including: Kitty Wells, Webb Pierce, Ernest Tubb, Red Foley, the Wilburn Brothers, and Bobby Helms, has also developed several new personalities in this market. Recent newcomers who have established a following are: Bill Anderson, Lewis Pruitt, Elmer Snodgrass and the Musical Pioneers, Roy Drusky, Don Winters and Danny Young.

Much of Decca's country product emanates from its Nashville Studios, under the supervision of A&R producer, Owen Bradley, assisted by Harry Silverstein.

Lutz Named To Pickwick Post

NEW YORK—Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick Sales Corp., parent firm for Design, Cricket and "Instant" Learning Records, announced last week the appointment of Abbot Lutz to act as director of sales for the newly created records distribution division.

Leslie revealed that Ralph Berson, who formerly acted as sales manager in all areas of distribution, will continue to deal with all Pickwick's customers except record distributors. Lutz, who leaves this week (14) on a three week trip to the West Coast to visit distributors will report directly to Cy Leslie.

The move, according to Leslie, was necessitated by the "tremendous acceptance of both the Cricket and Design 'Compatible' Fidelity albums on the retailer level."

Abbot Lutz, who was with Columbia, Urania and Seeco Records before joining Pickwick as product director, will continue to hold that position in addition to his new duties.

Brasselle Replaces DeWitt On TV'er

NEW YORK—Keefe Brasselle, Coral Records' artist, was signed by CBS exec Hunt Stromberg in Hollywood last week to take over the emcee spot on the network's "Be Our Guest" TV'er, recently vacated by George De Witt. Brasselle will act as star and host on the musical variety show which also features the Glenn Miller orchestra under Ray McKinley's direction. The format will allow Brasselle to display his virtuosity as a singer, dancer, and impressionist as well as handling interviews with guest artists.

Bright Eyes

NEW YORK—Pretty Janice Harper appears very pleased with the results of her latest recording session. Having hit the charts with "Cry Me A River," the Capitol recording artist's new single is "Till Tomorrow."

Victor Issues Warren Memorial Album

NEW YORK—To commemorate the death of Leonard Warren and to pay homage to his great art, RCA Victor is releasing a special memorial recording containing nine arias from works of Verdi, Leoncavallo, Giordano, and Ponchielli operas the baritone sang in twenty-two years with the Metropolitan. The recordings in this album were made by Warren between 1950 and 1959, the peak years of his career.

Of special interest are the "Andrea Chenier" aria, heretofore unreleased, and such recent operatic roles as the title part in "Macbeth", the duet from "Simon Boccanegra", and the Act II aria from "La Forza del Destino", the opera in which Warren appeared the night of his untimely death. "Il Balen" from "Il Trovatore" was recorded in July 1959 and represents the last recording Warren made.

An appreciation by Paul Henry Lang which appeared March 6th in the New York Herald Tribune, is reprinted on the album liner. The article reads in part: "Leonard Warren was a compelling figure whatever the role and his great voice could fill the immense auditorium with glorious sound . . . (He was) a supreme representative of Italian opera. And it was authentic representation, saluted by Italians as their very own . . . There is an element, powerful, heroic—even brutal—beauty in the soaring, dancing Dionysian sorcery of the full-bodied singing voice. Mr. Warren possessed this . . . The voice and the singing were the triumph of the oldest and most profound traditions of the lyric stage and it was the height of this triumph that a great artist ended his career."

Epic Pacts Stylemasters, Dowell

NEW YORK — Epic Records has signed a male vocal quartet, The Stylemasters, and songster Lee Dowell as the result of a recent nationwide talent search, according to an announcement by Charles Sagle, co-director of popular A&R.

Mr. Sagle heard The Stylemasters in Omaha, where the four young men are featured vocalists with the United States Army Band. With eleven more months to go before completing their enlistment, it was necessary for Sagle to fly to Washington to secure Army permission to sign the quartet. Prior to their enlistment The Stylemasters sang professionally and had toured as featured performers with Sophie Tucker.

Dowell was brought to Epic's attention by Mike Corda, who is now Dowell's manager.

Everest Signs Larry Clinton

NEW YORK — LeRoy Holmes, Everest Records pop A & R Chief announced the immediate pacting of ork leader Larry Clinton to an exclusive contract to the label.

Holmes is currently in the process of setting up recording dates for the first Clinton album which is scheduled for June release.

Honeymooners

LOS ANGELES—Liberty recording star Julie London and husband Bobby Troup prepare to fly to the annual carnival in Rio. The couple headed a contingent of Hollywood celebrities invited to Rio as guests of the Brazilian government. The trip doubles as a belated honeymoon for the couple, married last New Year's Eve.

UA Names 3 New Distribs

NEW YORK—The official appointment of new distributors for United Artists Records in New York, San Francisco and Atlanta has been announced by Andy Miele, National Sales Manager for the label. The distributors are Ideal Record Products headed by Al Levine in New York; Eric Distributors under the helm of Irv Pinansky in San Francisco; and Southland Distributing Company operated by Jake Friedman in Atlanta.

The appointment of the new distributors who will handle United Artists line of albums and singles takes effect immediately.

Haverlin "American Of Year"

NEW YORK—Carl Haverlin, president of Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI), has been selected as the 1960 recipient of the annual "American of the Year" award of Independence Hall of Chicago.

According to Independence Hall president S. L. DeLove, the award is being presented to Haverlin "for creative work in the field of American history, and for efforts in instilling a deep appreciation and a reverential gratitude for our American heritage as expressed by acceptance of the challenge of American citizenship."

Presentation will be made on May 10 at the Peoples Church of Chicago, when winners and runner-up in the annual Independence Hall essay contest will also be presented with their certificates. Dignitaries, civic leaders, and the nationally famous Fifth Army Band will be present.

"The Last Best Hope of Earth," a speech delivered by Haverlin before the Lincoln Group of the District of Columbia in the Library of Congress in January, has been published in the March 1, 1960 issue of "Vital Speeches of the Day." It will also be reprinted in the forthcoming issue of Foreign Affairs Quarterly.

"Madison" Local Dance Craze

NEW YORK—A tip six weeks ago resulted in the Al Brown disk on Amy, "The Madison," a new dance craze in the Wash., D.C.-Balt. area. At that time, Herb Silverman of Joseph M. Zamoiski in Baltimore tipped off both label A&R head Buddy Smith and sales chief Walt Blumberg regarding a "new dance which had taken Baltimore by storm called 'The Madison'." Three weeks later, a recording was made of a new song—written by Brown—based on the dance.

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

Elvis Presley was intellectually dissected when WNEW-New York aired "The Return of Elvis Presley" as a musical, cultural and military phenomenon of our time. Taking part in this exploration was Dr. Fabian Rouke, head of the Psychology Dept. at Manhattan College; Dr. John Mehegan, instructor at the Julliard School of Music; Nat Hentoff, distinguished jazz and popular music critic; and Elvis himself, through an interview on his arrival from Germany. Also contributing their views were WNE jockeys William B. Williams, Pete Myers and Richa Hayes, and PD Mark Olds. It was an enlightening discussion. . . . A unique and charitable twist "payola" was a one-day feature of Fred Fiske's radio time over WWDC-Washington, D.C. Fiske agreed to play a top promotion tune in return for a pint of blood donated to the Red Cross by the promo man. Joining Fiske as blood donors (kicking off the city Red Cross Month) were Augie Blume (RCA), Bern Block (Marnel), Chick Silvers (Mercury), Jack Kirl (J&F), Johnny Lam (Schwartz Bros.), Chuck Grego (Columbia), Bob Callahan (Decca), Nat Lopat (Kapp), Eddie Kalicka (Mangold) and Harold Beriman (Zamoiska). The Brothers Four also got to play on "Greenfields" for their donations. . . . Portrait of a Faithful Wife: Mrs. Jack Lacy, spouse of the WINS-New York radio personality, is assuring all Jack's air duties for two weeks while he takes off to recuperate from a minor throat ailment. . . . The nation's first FM "Jazzathon" was held recently by KFMB-FM-San Diego, the all-jazz outlet, for the benefit of the Heart Fund. The 60 hour marathon jazz show was handled by the station Geoff Edwards and Newton. . . . Johnny "Madman" Michaels, who's taking up residence at WKMH-Detroit sends out an urgent plea for help in locating a three-bedroom ranch house for the family. . . . Bil Beamish memos that it's great to be able to sleep nights now that he's been shifted into the afternoon slot at WAVZ-New Haven, Conn. . . . Gil Faggen, program director for KYW-Cleveland, recently became a father when his wife delivered a baby boy.

FRED FISKE

Odd situation was revealed last week which should be used as a warning for caution. Seems a young high school boy had been passing himself off as an employee of WRON in Ronceverte, West Virginia, in order to receive free records from diskeries. He used the station's letters with his home address in another town. Thankfully the scheme was uncovered and the station, along with the Post Office Dept., is tracking down the names of the record companies he had contacted. His name is Skeeter Grier. WRON president James E. Venable would appreciate any help in clearing up the matter. . . . Bill "Sparky" Mullen (WSID-Baltimore) has doubled his appearances in the Melod Ballroom due to the tremendous turnouts he's getting. He's now there every Friday night. . . . KFII-Dallas pulled a surprise move when it switched its music format for the 10 PM to Midnight hours. The segment, titled "Romance," features appropriate late hours mood music. Station prexy Gordon McLendon stated that not only adults, but teenagers as well are ready for a softer, more melodious musical format at these hours. Station's regular schedule will remain the same. . . . Jim Shelton needs lots and lots of disks for KVLV-Fallout Nev. He promises sufficient exposure on his "Jim's Jamboree." . . . In addition to his duties at KRKD-Pasadena, Frank Evans also contributes his efforts at KRHM-Los Angeles every afternoon. . . . While appearing at Buffalo nitespot recently, Al Martino dropped in on the staff of WBNY to personally promote his latest single, "Dearest." . . . While on the subject, Tony Bennett visited with J. P. Abary, Mary Lou and Brian Dow at WBIS-Bristol, Conn., while he was in the area for a niter engagement. The three some heartily recommend Tony's latest LP, "My Wonderful One." . . . Larry Gar (WLBG-Laurens, S.C.) thinks he's made a discovery. Says that Sue Como's "Pink Shuttles" for the Smart label is just "the end" and wit exposure could be a big one.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Don Hodges is the new PD for KSWO-Lawton, Okla., having given up the night show at KOMA-Oklahoma City. . . . After being away from the turntables for five months (his last association with WORC-Worcester, Mass.), Brian C. Dow is now spinning them every afternoon for WBIS-Bristol, Conn. . . . Assuming the music director's post at KLIF-Dallas is Buddy MacGregor. . . . Dave Jacobs, formerly of WWNC-Asheville, N.C., takes up the PD post and jockey duties at WLOS in the same city, replacing Ron Tomberlin, now at KRAK-Sacramento, Calif. . . . Johnny "Madman" Michaels moved to WKMH-Detroit. . . . New additions to the KISN-Portland roster are Bob Stevens (former PD for KVAN) and Ed Leahy. . . . Vet ABC Radio Network team Frank Harden and Jackson Weaver ("Frank & Jack") take over the wake-up duties for WMAL-Washington, D.C. Also, WMAL has upped Howard Williams to program operations manager, succeeding Rupe Werling, who moved over to WMAL-TV. . . . Cliff Schilling leaves WICU-Erie, Pa. for the afternoon chores at WERC-Erie, shifting Tom Torrance into the AM hours. . . . Sam Riddle rounds out the jockey staff for six-months-old KRLA-Los Angeles. He was last with KDEO-San Diego. . . . New all-night man for WITH-Baltimore is Mike Barry, coming from WAAT-Trenton. . . . Duke Norton and Nick Paul debut individual shows over KPOP-Los Angeles. Paul comes from KLAC. . . . Hosting the "Wax Wagon" for WHYN-Springfield, Mass. is Buddy Stevens, formerly at WDEW-Westfield, Mass.

ARDCO Offers Artists Corporate Disk Deal

HOLLYWOOD—A plan wherein artists and Allied Record Distributing, here, will form corporate enterprises for record making and merchandising was made known last week by Allied prexy Ned Herzstam.

Known as Conart (Consolidated Artists), the plan works in the following manner: an artist forms his own corporation and Allied owns as much as 50% of the stock or as little as 1% of the stock; monies for A&R and merchandising are spent proportionately to the ownership of stock in the artist's corporation; there is a Conart diskery handled in the following manner: the name Conart appears across the top; the name of the artist production company would appear underneath; if the record hits, the name Conart and the artist's production name would both appear as the label name on the charts.

Said Nerzstam: "Conart is going to enable ARDCO to merchandise album releases intelligently . . . in today's album market, many deals are being worked out when a label company has a catalog. A single album release has never been able to take advantage of these deals. Now under the Conart plan, single albums can be released and merchandised as a catalog. In addition, exchange privileges are very common in the industry and what can you exchange on a single album release? Through the Conart plan an artist will be able to utilize exchange privileges."

Leslie Answers RIAA On Compatible Disks

NEW YORK—Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick Sales, merchandising arm of Design Compatible Fidelity Records, last week answered the RIAA statement that "true compatible phonograph records are no closer to attainment today than was the case two years ago."

Leslie commented: "We never expected the RIAA to agree with compatibility because of the vested interests of the member firms in their stereo stockpile. When stereophonic records were originally introduced they got the same treatment from the major record manufacturers. We are going full steam ahead. Our Design Compatible Fidelity line has gotten wonderful acceptance from dealers. As a matter of fact, we have just this week appointed Abbot Lutz to head up the marketing program for Design Compatible Fidelity on the record distributor-retailer level.

"It's no secret that there are many members of the RIAA who are now cutting their stereo records the same way we are and will shortly announce that their records are also compatible. Compatibility is inevitable. Everyone now actively engaged in the release of records on a regular basis will ultimately have it.

"The dealers have welcomed compatible because it allows them to get double the value from space they are now dividing between monophonic and stereophonic records. Major department stores have tested and approved of the recordings and so have engineers like Sid Feldman, Les Cahan, John Mosely and many others. Incidentally, it is interesting to note that although they claim to have tested our compatible records, the RIAA statement was completely devoid of any technical data whatsoever!"

Two Disk UA LP Honors Amateur Hour's 25th Anny

NEW YORK—United Artists Records is releasing a double-record package entitled the "Original Amateur Hour 25th Anniversary Album." The two record set which will retail for $6.98 includes performances by Pat Boone, Teresa Brewer, Art Lund, Jerry Vale, Stubby Kaye, Irving Fields, Jan Bart and many others as they originally appeared on the broadcasts of Ted Mack and Major Bowes' "Original Amateur Hours." Many of the top performers in show business today are graduates of the immensely popular Amateur Hour shows. The album is part of United Artists' March release, and is available only monaurally.

The program of Ted Mack & The Original Amateur Hour has returned to the air via the ABC-TV network. The first program in the new series was telecast Monday, March 7.

Impala Relocates And Adds Ayre

PHILADELPHIA—Impala Records' president Franny Williamson announced last week that effective March 14, Jim Ayre, a Philly songwriter, will replace singer Charlie Gracie as A & R man for the label. Ayre will also be added to the songwriting staff. The national promotion man, Barry Abrams, will also be replaced as of that date. The reason for the replacements was not disclosed. Impala Records recently moved its offices and recording studios to a new location, "I" and Schiller Streets, Philadelphia 34, Pa. Also housed there is Center Music and Ethel Mae Music, the labels music publishing firms.

1st Rank Plastic Disks To Sell Consumer Goods

NEW YORK—Rank Audio Plastic Records was launched last week with the release of five records, according to Harold Friedman, consultant and member of the firm's executive committee.

The records—thin, low-cost plastic disks—are being utilized to impart technical information to members of the dental profession, to instruct chess players, and as an incentive-premium to spur sales of socks to teenagers.

First runs off the presses go to: Shamrock Hosiery Company, New York; Cardinal Industries, Inc., Brooklyn, N. Y.; and the Audio Journal of Dentistry, Philadelphia, Pa.

Shamrock Hosiery, manufacturers of infants and children's hosiery, sold in W. T. Grant, S. H. Kress, McCrory-McLellan Stores and other retail outlets is distributing an initial order of 50,000 records in especially designed new packages.

Each polyethylene package contains one pair of white crew type girls' socks for the teen-age group, and one popular recording. The first shipment will feature three of the Top Ten records: "Theme From A Summer Place", "Forever" and "Baby". The price of the package, which will be available in stores on and after March 19, is 59¢.

James Galbally, vice president of Shamrock predicts that the sock-record combination will "be so popular with the 10-18 age group that the reorder of Rank T.U.P. (Thin Unbreakable Plastic) records will go into the millions."

Cardinal Industries, Inc. have designed a new chess set, the "University Chess" package, to accompany the Rank record of basic chess instructions for beginners.

The "University Chess" set will be introduced to the novelty and game market at the American Toy Fair, being held at the Hotel New Yorker from March 7 to 16. Five thousand sets with Rank plastic records have been ordered to exhibit to distributors and jobbers. The "University Chess" set is the largest in the Cardinal line, having a 3½-inch king piece. The sets will be sold for $2 through department stores.

Leslie Berger, president of Cardinal, in announcing the introduction of his company's new set, said: "After careful study, we have concluded that the most effective form of teaching, to all age groups, is by the use of verbal instructions. We expect that the Rank plastic record, which is easy to understand and follow should simplify chess for everyone. It will be tremendously effective in teaching the fine and fascinating game of chess to anyone who can understand the spoken word".

The Audio Journal of Dentistry will use its first Rank Audio Plastic record at the meeting of the Philadelphia County Dental Society, at the Philadelphia Sheraton Hotel, March 8 through 11.

Joel Charles, Vice President, said, "We are using the Rank plastic record as a sales promotion instrument to attract subscribers to the Audio Journal of Dentistry, by acquainting dentists with the Journal's contents".

Aimed at the general dental practitioner, the Journal is a tape-recorded reel of condensations and excerpts, from 192 dental publications. It is issued semi-monthly to keep members of the dental profession informed of new techniques.

"The Rank T.U.P. record," Charles said, "will call attention to the advantages of having subject matter in vocal form. It will also include a three-minute dissertation on hypodontia in dentistry to replace or augment anaesthesia in dental treatment".

An attendance of 7,000 is anticipated at the meeting in Philadelphia, from a five-state area of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

After the Rank plastic record has been distributed in Philadelphia, the Audio Journal will select another area in the country for distribution, with a view to widening its sales promotion program.

Rank T.U.P.'s are completely pliable. They can be rolled in a mailing tube and easily and economically inserted, in books and magazines without special equipment.

Seven inches in diameter, the records come in a complete range of speeds, including 33, 45 and 78 rpm, and are available in black or white. They can be played hundreds of times.

Rank Audio Plastics is a division of Rank Records of America, which is owned by the J. Arthur Rank motion picture organization of England and Librairie Hachette of France.

Eye-Catcher

HOLLYWOOD—A current eyestopper at Sunset and Vine is the above window display in Glenn Wallich's Music City. Set up by the RCA Distributing Corp., the display centers around "60 Years of Music America Loves Best," depicting the evolution of the phonograph from the cylinder to the latest in stereo equipment. Henry Jenkins, manager of the RCA distributorship, stated that the album is one of the all-time best-selling albums in the local area.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"SATIN BRASS"—The George Shearing Quintet with Brass Choir—Capitol ST 1326
Attractive, pleasant album of the mood type that Shearing has been turning out for Capitol over the past few years. Here the mildly swinging quintet is supplemented by a brass choir. The quintet's soft, dulcet tones are in nice contrast to the sharp, stinging brass passages. Tunes played are "I Could Write A Book," "If I Had You," "Chelsea Bridge," "A Ship Without A Sail" and "Stairway To The Stars." Interesting for the moodists.

"HOW THE WEST WAS WON"—Bing Crosby, Rosemary Clooney, Jimmy Driftwood, Mormon Tabernacle Choir, Sam Hinton, Desert Mormon Choir—RCA Victor LOP 6070

This deluxe, two-disk album on the history of the American West was produced taking a cue from the recent Life Magazine series. In song and narration the colorful story unfolds, with the abundant talents of Crosby, Clooney, et al. keeping things going along at a high entertainment pitch. The songs are cherished Americana and are accorded their respectful due. Also included is a beautiful 24 page full color booklet. It all adds up to a wonderfully rewarding experience.

"TWILIGHT MEMORIES"—The Three Suns—RCA Victor LSP 2120

As a sort of 20th Anniversary tribute to its own staying power, the enormously popular music trio offer a mellow review of some of its biggest hit songs. The boys begin with their theme song, "Twilight Time" and then glide smoothly into "Don't Take Your Love From Me," "Under Paris Skies," "Peg O' My Heart," "Moonlight And Roses" and "Delicado." These are newly recorded versions and the instrumentation differs somewhat from the originals. Nevertheless, many will cherish this album.

"THAT KIND OF WOMAN"—Joe Williams—Roulette R 52039

Joe Williams' sensitive ballad singing presents no compromise with quality. A master of the blue mood, he invests each number with enormous depth of feeling. Accompaniment varies with the songs; brass, woodwinds and strings alternately underscoring Williams' deft handling of the lyric lines. The songs include "Candy," "Stella By Starlight," "It's Easy to Remember," "When A Woman Loves A Man" and "Have You Met Miss Jones." Of immediate interest to jazz and mature pop fans.

"CHEERS"—The Belafonte Folk Singers—RCA Victor LSP 1992

A pleasurable collection of drinking songs of various ethnic origins have been assembled by Robert Corman and Milt Okun, and fitted with English lyrics. They represent a fairly authentic picture of the international drinking scene. The Singers are an able group; disciplined, clear voiced, with several fine soloists. Corman's direction is folk knowledgeable with a definite eye toward the pop market. Among the selections are "We'll Have Another Drink," "African Drinking Song," "Old King Cole," "Canzone Del Vino" and "Malke."

"IF I GIVE MY HEART TO YOU"—Kitty Kallen—Columbia CL 1409

Having returned to chart security with an updated, mild teen beat version of the album's title tune, the thrush brings the same approach to more old standards for a flavorful LP excursion that meets the demands of both teenagers and adults. The tunes here include "Always In My Heart," "Got A Date With An Angel," "That Old Feeling" and "Never In A Million Years." Milton De Lugg is musically knowing in obtaining the correct measure of modern beat. Should fare well.

"CARIBBEAN"—Mitchell Torok—Guyden LP 50:

Titled after his big two-time winner, the album presents Torok in an entertaining bill of country tinged pop songs, his usual vehicle. The music is presented well and will appeal especially to the younger buyers. The tunes include the title song "Mexican Joe," "A Rose Covered Garden," "Guardian Angel" and "I Want To Know Everything," among others.

"AND THAT REMINDS ME"—Della Reese—Jubilee JGM 1116

A collection of past singles by the songstress in a package titled after her big hit with Jubilee, presents her in a compelling ballad mood. Selections include both standards and recent items, among them are "The More I See Of You," "Time After Time," "I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm" and "In The Still Of The Night," plus the title tune. Emotionally gratifying performances by the stylist. Should do well in light of her success on Victor.

"DOUBLE EXPOSURES"—Manny Albam and His Orchestra—Top Rank RM 313

It is a known musical fact that many very different melodies are based upon the same chord sequence. Manny Albam has used this principle to devise an album that on each selection pairs two songs. (Similar to the "Moonglow/Theme From Picnic" hit.) It is an interesting gimmick and the swinging big band sounds remain of prime importance, not letting the gimmick itself overshadow musical taste. Albam has coupled such tunes as "Undecided/This Can't Be Love," "Crazy Rhythm/Opus 1," "Perdido/You Can Depend On Me," and "Blue Moon/Mountain Greenery." Fascinating and musically sound.

"BEHIND BRIGITTE BARDOT"—Pete Rugolo and His Orchestra—Warner Bros. B 1371

Pete Rugolo has fashioned scintillating, sensuous orchestral arrangements of the background themes from the "explosive" scenes of Mlle. Bardot's motion pictures. And the young lady is around to lavishly decorate the double fold album: large, full-length reclining pose on the outside; some smaller but no less revealing photos inside. The music is good jazz-tinged listening stuff, unobtrusive and pleasant.

"REMEMBER WHEN..."—The Merrill Staton Choir, Jay Willoughby, Baritone—Epic LN 3664

An amusing collection of pre-1900 songs is delightfully sung by the choir, providing a package of high entertainment value. The entire production is in keeping with what could be considered the original flavor of the songs: arrangements, vocal and orchestral, and the soloists capably maintain the "sterile" atmosphere. Some of the better-known tunes are: "Little Brown Jug," "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," "The Bonnie Blue Flag," "Drill Ye Tarriers" and "The Man On the Flying Trapeze," but it is the unknown numbers that are the especial delight of the album.

"WADE FLEMONS"—Vee Jay LP 1011

Young songster displays solid blues and ballad authority. This session features him in such a line-up of songs, plus a few violently swinging tempos, and it all makes for exciting listening. He handles each number with proper feeling and persuasiveness. They include "Whoops Now," "Here I Stand," "What's Happening" and "Slow Motion." Strong appeal for the teen and blues markets.

"A NIGHT AT SAMMY'S BOWERY FOLLIES"—Coral CRL 57312

Coral's location recording crew has lovingly caught the evening's proceedings of this last outpost of the gay 90's. To the ricky-tick rhythms of the piano-banjo-drums orchestra, a parade of faded chorus girls and entertainers sing such evergreens as "I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover," "Shine On Harvest Moon," "Ace In The Hole," "The Band Played On," "Goodbye My Lady Love," "Sidewalks of New York," "My Mother's Eyes" and many others of similar vintage. It's a fun disk that openly invites many oldtimers to join in the revelry.

Album Reviews

"SONGS YOU SWOONED TO"—Raymond Price and His Orchestra—Tabb T-2001

Label makes its debut with a bill of tunes recorded and made famous by Frank Sinatra. The orchestral interpretation maintains a dreamy, glittering feeling through the effective use of woodwind solos superimposed over lush string backgrounds. Rhythm is kept to a minimum. Selections include "Close To You," "From Here To Eternity," "All The Way," "Nancy" and "Put Your Dreams Away." Lovely mood listening.

"TELL IT TO THE MARINES"—Oscar Brand—Elektra 174

Having sung about the Air Force and the Navy in previous Elektra albums, Brand brings his voice and guitar to 14 of the lustiest songs about the Marines. He pulls no punches with language (in the legendary tradition of the Corps) cutting loose with numerous anti-other service comments. Some of the songs have been built around standard tunes which Brand has used in other LP's before, but the lyrics are unashamedly all-Marine. Another good addition to the singer's growing ritual library.

"SALUDOS FROM FAJARDO"—Jose Fajardo and His Cuban All-Stars—Panart 3058

For authentic Cuban dance music Fajardo is far-and-away the most likely choice to provide it. One of the leading exponents of this music (strings instead of brass), Fajardo reigns tops in Cuba and the Palladium Ballroom. Voices are an important part of the Fajardo sound and they are here in liberal doses. Hot album for the market, and an excellent intro to this music for those who have never experienced its special delightfulness.

"ARTHUR TRACY THE STREET SINGER"—Audio Fidelity AFSD 5929

"Round the corner and down your way comes Arthur Tracy your street singer" begins Tracy's introduction to his new album, which precedes his singing of "Marta," a song so perfectly suited to his style. This most famous member of the once popular school of so-called "street singers" returns to wax with an engaging package of nostalgic items: "Full Moon And Empty Arms," "September Song," "Yours Is My Heart Alone," and "Play, Fiddle, Play." Those from his generation will be quick to appreciate his style.

JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK

"PETE FOUNTAIN DAY"—Coral CRL 57313

Recorded in performance last Oct. at the Municipal Auditorium in New Orleans, the album presents the amazing clarinetist in a memorable concert. Although part of a quintet, Fountain carries the load all the way, and only drummer Jack Sperling rates high interest alongside Fountain's playing. This is highly emotional traditional music, more emotional and inventive than any Dixieland being played today. Fountain's solos are an intense listening treat. The tunes include "I Got Rhythm," "Avalon," "Ja Da," "Poor Butterfly" and "S'Wonderful." Could be a big seller.

"TOMMY TURRENTINE"—Time T/70008

Out of Pittsburgh and not well-known on the current jazz scene, Turrentine is a fiery young trumpeter who deserves considerable attention. Playing here with a Max Roach unit he gets immeasurable support from the amazing drummer and brother Stanley Turrentine, plus Julian Priester, Horace Parlan and Bob Boswell. As in all Roach unit dates, this one drives along at an almost violent clip, but Roach is always unerring in his time. The sides are "Gunga Din," "Webb City," "Blues For J.P." and "Too Clean." Solid jazz offering from the label.

"PHIL NAPOLEON AND HIS MEMPHIS FIVE"—Capitol ST 1344

The oldtimer's first session for Capitol and he does justice to the occasion with a bright array of Dixieland classics transferred into his own traditional revivalist sound. It's an attractive set, played with verve and interest. Selections include "South," "Creole Rag," "Wolverine Blues," "Limehouse Blues" and "Shake It And Break It." For the Dixie devotees.

"PIANO RAGTIME WITH THE PHENOMENAL DUKES OF DIXIELAND"—Audio Fidelity AFSD 5928

Volume II in AF's Dukes LP series finds them in a ragtime mood, delivering a bill of familiar standards in a pseudo-ragtime style. Naturally the piano is the spotlighted instrument and it is played capably here, emulating the styles of the famous ragtime pianists. Tunes include "Twelfth Street Rag," "Maple Leaf Rag," "Bugle Call Rag," "Wolverine Blues" and "Tiger Rag."

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

PUCCINI: "Tosca"—Tebaldi, del Monaco, London, Corena, Orchestra and Chorus of the Accademia di Santa Cecilia Rome, Chorus master: Bonaventura Somma, Conductor: Francesco Milinari-Pradelli—London OSA 1210

London has re-recorded Miss Tebaldi in this opera for benefit of stereo, and a good thing it did, for this newest addition to the many "Toscas" has to be considered one of the finest. Mario del Monaco is absolutely brilliant here, and George London and Fernando Corena are standouts in support. Of course Miss Tebaldi maintains a magnificence throughout. An outstanding issue.

HAYDN: The Salomon Symphonies, Volume 2—Sir Thomas Beecham conducting the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra—Capitol SGCR 7198

The second volume in Beecham's massive undertaking to record the complete Salomon Symphonies is as outstanding as the initial release. Three disks, one symphony per side (Nos. 99 through 104), the album is handsomely boxed, but it is the contents which are vital. Elegantly recorded, they are more proof of Beecham's mastery of the baton and his ability to achieve fantastic results when he sets out on a task.

SIBELIUS: Concerto in D Minor, Op. 47 for Violin and Orchestra; Tapiola-Tone Poem, Op. 112—Tossy Spivakovsky, violin, Tauno Hannikainen conducting the London Symphony Orchestra—Everest LPBR 6045

Spivakovsky is an artist of consummate skill as well proven by his display of technique on the difficult Sibelius Violin Concerto. Hannikainen's direction reveals his closeness to the composer and his work. The combination of these two artists makes for a brilliant interpretation of the piece. As a filler, the Tone Poem is well chosen, for it shows the maturity which Sibelius reached in his later years. Well-recorded, the album offers beautiful listening.

"KEYBOARD MUSIC OF THE FRENCH COURT"—Paul Maynard, Organ and Harpsichord—American Society SAS 1006

The American Society has packaged six LP's recorded from the Carnegie Recital Hall under the encompassing title, "The Royal Music of Europe," of which this unusual disk is one. Maynard is a dedicated artist and his deft handling of this unusual bill of selections is of immediate interest to connoisseurs of keyboard music. There are pieces here by Pierre du Mage, Louis Couperin, Jacques Champion de Chambonnières, and others. Should reap attention. Cover features a reprint of a Picasso drawing.

Album Reviews

($1.49 thru $2.98)

"ROCKING THE STANDARDS" RCA Camden Rockers, RCA Camden CAS-562, $2.98, Monaural $1.98

Content: "Among My Souvenirs", "Bei Mir Bist Du Schon", "I Only Have Eyes For You", 7 others. Cover: Wild display of color lettering with title strong in front. Performance: The "Camden Rockers" do take-offs on some of the more recent pop hits capturing the same style and feeling that made the originals big sellers. "Bei Mir Bist Du Schon", a la Keely and Louis, is a gem, while the gal (not billed) on "Till There Was You" does a beautiful job. "Who's Sorry Now" is about as close as you can get to a Connie Francis version. Commercial Value: The "Rockers" ought to attract a wide audience of teen fans. They've been getting better with each release.

"AN EVENING WITH JEROME KERN" The Velvet Voices, RCA Camden CAS-569, $2.98, Monaural $1.98

Content: "Why Do I Love You?", "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes", "I Dream Too Much", 7 others. Cover: Offbeat color shot comes off well, with titles strong against black backdrop. Performance: The "voices" breeze through a brace of Kern that includes some of his best. Slightly faster tempo on most selections gives the deck a commercial flavor. "I Won't Dance" is in a latin tempo and stands out. Commercial Value: The Kern name should mean a lot. Selections and packaging ought to support sales well.

"AMERICAN WALTZES" Fred Astaire Dance Studio Orch., RCA Camden CAS-557, $2.98, Monaural $1.98

Content: "Hawaiian Waltz", "On Top Of Old Smoky", "After The Ball", 13 others. Cover: Astaire and partner dance—black and white photo. Performance: The deck offers 16 waltzes as background for instruction from the "How To Dance . . ." booklet which is also enclosed. Commercial Value: Looks like a typical solid rack selection following up the "Cha-Cha-Cha" and "Merengue-Mambo" LP's released previously.

"RACHMANINOFF—PIANO CONCERTO NO. 2" Kjell Baekkelund, pianist, Oslo Philharmonic Orch., Oivin Fjeldstad, Conductor, RCA Camden CAL-475, $1.98

Content: Rachmaninoff's widely popular opus, in "C" Minor, Op. 18. Cover: Color reproduction of the composer at his desk. Impressive. Performance: First-rate performance of the beloved concerto delivered in a rich, robust sound that captures the beauty and intense feeling of this classical work. At least as good as regular-priced merchandise. Commercial Value: A classical gem. Deserves top display.

"MARGARET WHITING—THE GYPSY IN MY SOUL" Hamilton HLP-104, $1.98

Content: Title tune plus "Sentimental Journey", "Runnin' Wild", "Hit The Road To Dreamland", 8 others. Cover: Color shot of Miss Whiting wearing gypsy costume. Good display. Performance: Maggie is backed by six different conductors on an even dozen tunes previously released all of which feature the tasteful flavor and style of every Margaret Whiting effort. Good collection of vocals. Commercial Value: The Whiting fans ought to jump at this offering. Good rack material.

"THE BIG 4 QUARTETTE" Hamilton HLP-111, $1.98

Content: "Coney Island Rag", "Hello My Baby", "Huggin' And A Chalkin'", 9 others. Cover: Natural color shot of the 4 middle aged ladies who are billed as "800 pounds of fine harmony". Performance: The gals run through standard 4-part harmony selections but add some pops, e.g.: "Nevertheless", "Mister Sandman", making for pleasant sounds. Good professional style. Commercial Value: The Big 4 have had wide TV exposure with shots on network shows. This, plus barbershop style, should attract.

"GREAT MOVIE MUSIC" Elmer Bernstein, Hamilton HLP-108, $1.98

Content: "Around The World", "Theme From Sayonara", "A Place In The Sun", "Love Like Ours (The Men)", 7 others. Cover: Subdued coloring sets off lovers' profile tastefully. Performance: Soft delivery on brace of movie themes not often heard is refreshing and makes for good flicker music package. Interesting listening. Commercial Value: Unlike most LP's of this type, the deck offers much in the way of seldom heard themes, and good ones. Sales potential should reflect this asset.

"DANCE—WITH BEASLEY SMITH AND HIS ORCH." Hamilton HLP-110, $1.98

Content: "Tea For Two", "Whispering", "Moonglow", "Jealous", 8 others. Cover: All type—with the word dance measuring the depth and width of the jacket. Eyecatcher. Performance: Pleasing group of danceable tunes with the fox trot getting the attention. Selections are standards. Commercial Value: Dance theme and selections should attract a market.

"SERGE PROKOFIEV: SYMPHONY #7", N. P. Anosov Conducting The Czech Philharmonic Orch., Parliament PLP-122, $1.98

Content: Prokofiev's last work before his death. Cover: Color reproduction of interior of palace. Impressive. Performance: The Czech Philharmonic perform the opus with all of its intense and heavy feeling in a highly acceptable manner. The LP was recorded in Europe and is listed as a "Cultural Exchange" presentation. Commercial Value: Good classical material merchandised in first rate style.

"DVORAK—SLAVONIC DANCES" Vaclav Talich Conducting The Czech Philharmonic Orch., Parliament PLP-121-2, $3.98

Content: Book fold jacket offers two LP's completing Opus 46 and Opus 72. Liner notes appear on inside fold while face of jacket illustrates European dance in line drawing and color. Performance: The Czech Philharmonic complete the Slavonic Dance offering with color and zest capturing the feeling of Dvorak's homeland. Commercial Value: Looks like a good low-price offering for the classical collectors and basic European music lovers.

"THE MAGIC SOUND OF DESIGN COMPATIBLE FIDELITY" Design DCF-1000, 99¢

Content: Tracks from 12 Design LP's include "The Glenn Miller Way", "Sing Along With The Idlers", "The Golden Era Of Dixieland Jazz". Cover: Copy, at top with title, mentions "plays stereo or monophonic" pitch, while LP covers are reproduced in color below. Performance: The deck offers a track from each of 12 LP's and they can be heard either in stereo or mono, on either type phonograph. Sound came off fine when played on both music systems during review. Commercial Value: Price ticket ought to induce shoppers to try the "compatible" feature for the first time.

Eight LP's Skedded By UA For March

NEW YORK—United Artists has scheduled eight albums for release in March. On the list are a group of pop albums including "Tito Rodriguez At The Palladium" by Tito Rodriguez and his Orchestra. This is another in United Artists' "Live Performance Series". Also released is a sing-along album, "March Along-Sing Along" by Glenn Osser's Marching Band and Chorus. Other entries are "Dream Concerto", pop versions of piano classics by Ferrante & Teicher with Orchestra and Chorus, and "All Points East" by Gus Vali and his Casbah Ensemble with the music of Turkey, Armenia and Greece. A two record set, the 25th Anniversary album of Ted Mack and Major Bowes' Original Amateur Hour is also on the UA schedule. The album features Teresa Brewer, Pat Boone, Art Lund, Stubby Kaye and many others as they originally performed on the Amateur Hour shows.

Mercury Rearranges Distrib Areas In N.Y. State & Ohio

CHICAGO—Effective March 15th, Mercury Records makes a change in its distribution in the New York State area.

Beginning on that date, Mercury Record Distributors of Ohio (operating out of Cleveland) will assume the western portion of the state which covers an eight county area west of the state line.

Mercury Distributors of New York (operating out of New York City) will assume the central portion of the state which covers Rochester and all counties west through Utica and Binghamton, plus all counties east of Rochester to the state line.

Peter Fabri, director of package goods sales for Mercury, points out that this change is designed to give fast and prompt dealer service through a "well qualified sales force of three men."

"Mercury inventory", Fabri continued, "will now be provided from two locations instead of one as was the case formerly. And we sincerely believe that the service to our dealers in this area will be vastly improved".

Two sound track packages are on the March list; from "The Fugitive Kind", starring Marlon Brando, Anna Magnani and Joanne Woodward, a musical score composed and conducted by Kenyon Hopkins. The second album is the sound track music from "The Unforgiven" featuring Burt Lancaster and Audrey Hepburn with a score composed and conducted by Academy Award winner Dimitri Tiomkin.

One classical album is scheduled, another in UA's Stokowski series, "Beethoven: Symphony #7". Leopold Stokowski conducts the Symphony Of The Air in this recording.

All of the March albums are available in monaural and stereo with the exception of the "Original Amateur Hour 25th Anniversary Album" which is being released in mono only. DJ samples of the new albums have been sent to distributors for re-distribution.

Dion Sets-Up Own Pubbery

NEW YORK—Dion of Dion and the Belmonts fame has formed his own publishing firm. Firm has been named Donna-Joan Music, Inc. after Dion's two sisters. The firm is affiliated with the Trinity Music, Inc. publishing group and the new firm will be operated by the Trinity organization under the supervision of Ed Burton.

Deal was set for Trinity by Pat Genaro who recently joined Ed Burton, owner of Trinity Music and Burton Management, Inc., as V. P. in charge of Special Projects. Genaro's functions will cover both publicity and management activities.

Dion's firm will concentrate on material for Dion and the Belmonts and on new material for other groups associated with the Dion operation.

Seeco Buys Sonora Master

NEW YORK—Mort Hillman, general manager of Seeco Records, last week announced the purchase of a master from the Sonora label, Joe Di Stefano's "Cara Angelina." Deck is reportedly getting action in Dallas, Houston and New Orleans. Hillman said an "all-out push" will be made on the deck.

Smile Of Success

NEW YORK—Jackie Wilson has plenty of reason for his happy smile. With his latest Brunswick recording "Night" beginning to take off he has been signed to headline at the Fountainbleu Hotel in Miami Beach, starting April 12, and before that stars at New York's Apollo Theatre in an attempt to better the all-time box-office mark he set there last November.

Drumfire Productions Formed

NEW YORK—Drumfire Productions has opened offices here. The firm—headed by Jim Ford and several other principals, will concentrate on producing masters, developing talent, and coordinating publishers' activities in the recording of new and catalog material. In addition, to this phase of the business, the firm also plans to produce TV tapes and flick shorts. The first artists signed to Drumfire are The Midnighters, whose current release is "Road Home" b/w "Taco" on 20th Fox Records. Writers, publishers and record companies with material to offer can receive full info by contacting Drumfire by calling SU 7-5900 or writing to 50 W. 77 St.

ENGLAND

The campaign by The Songwriters Guild of Great Britain to increase the amount of airtime for British material has, over the past twelve months, been stepped up resulting in more progress than at any other time. The Guild spent much time and money in accumulating masses of information and presenting the results in a concise and forceful form thus arousing the interest of both Parliament and the Press. Paddy Roberts, Chairman of the Guild, told The Cash Box that as far as light music was concerned representation had always been good with an average of 50% airtime for British material but this had not been the case with the all important record programs; consequently efforts have been concentrated on getting the percentage in this particular field increased.

Resulting from an interview between Paddy Roberts and the late Director-General of the B.B.C. Sir Ian Jacob, monthly returns of British recordings made by manufacturers were called for by the B.B.C. since when the position has improved considerably. This is illustrated by the Guild's figures recently issued. In October 1958 for instance the percentage of British material aired in record programs was as low as 14%—by August 1959 this had increased to 29% and by December 1959 to as much as 37%. The Guild is now anxious to extend its efforts to cover BBC TV and ITA for until this is done the overall picture will not be complete.

John Woyda, Record Buyer for Keith Prowse, one of this country's largest chain of record shops, reports that his company is the first to import the complete output both classical and pop of the American M.M.O.—Music Minus One—label exclusively for this country. This type of disk enabling an instrumentalist or vocalist to play or sing to a gramophone record is not available in this country and should prove popular. The Music Minus One library of L.P.s is extensive, each is issued in an artistic and attractively designed sleeve complete with music for the missing instrument.

A double debut this week for a new vocal group The England Sisters (Betty, Julie and Hazel) making their first stage appearance at the Metropolitan Theatre, London coinciding with the release of their first disk on the H.M.V. label "Heartbeat" backed with "Little Child". To mark the occasion H.M.V. gave a party at The Mostyn Hotel, attended by many celebrities including Russ Conway, Sam Costa, John Barry, Jerry Lordan, Wilfrid Thomas, Tony Osborne and International star Mona Baptiste.

E.M.I. Records gave a party on Friday of this week at Londonderry House, Park Lane, London to welcome Ella Fitzgerald and the personnel of the Norman Granz' "Jazz At The Philharmonic". Impresario Harold Davison is presenting the JATP with Ella Fitzgerald, Jimmy Giuffre, Roy Eldridge, Paul Smith and Shelly Manne and his Men on a 17-day nation wide tour. Three of the London concerts were completely sold out a month ago.

The Decca Record Company also gave a cocktail party this week to welcome jazz drummer, Shelly Manne, whose jazz interpretation of the "My Fair Lady" score with pianist Andre Previn and bassist Leroy Vinnegar, has become the all-time best selling jazz L.P.

Starlite Records, a subsidiary of Esquire Records is bringing out an album by the Irish tenor Patrick O'Hagan. The L.P. was recorded during a concert in Australia during his highly successful tour 'down under'. Currently on a variety tour O'Hagan opens shortly for a three-month season in Glasgow.

Shortly after returning from his American tour Britain's No. 1 pop star, Cliff Richard, will appear in the BBC's Festival of Popular Music Concert at The Royal Albert Hall, London, on Tuesday, March 22nd. Cliff will be accompanied by his group "The Shadows". Others in the bill include the Chris Barber Band, Ted Heath and his Music, Edmundo Ros and his Orchestra and singer Sheila Buxton. Immediately after the concert Cliff takes a well earned holiday.

John Ridley, Manager for Audio-Fidelity England told The Cash Box that Sidney Fery, the company's dynamic founder and Director, will be coming to London in April for The Audio Fair. Ridley reports that since setting up in this country just a year ago business has increased steadily and is progressing satisfactorily. The label's highly specialized recordings are in great demand abroad and are exported from London to fifteen countries including France, Belgium, Holland, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Australia, India, Aden, The Persian Gulf, Bahrain and Iraq.

Cyril Shane of Kassner Associated Publishers Ltd. has the ten-year old hit "With These Hands" just recorded by Shirley Bassey for immediate release on the Columbia label. Hopes are high that this will make the charts.

From Len Edwards of Mellin Music comes news of two potential hits for the London Associate Companies. Steve Lawrence's "Footsteps" due to be released here on the H.M.V. label on March 11th and Neil Sedaka's "Stairway to Heaven" to be released on RCA Decca on March 18th—a few weeks prior to the release of this disk in the States on the RCA Victor label. Sedaka's "Oh Carol" recently figured in the British charts for several months. Len is also very pleased with the way Lloyd Price's "Lady Luck" is going and is certain that it will be a great hit over here. Released on the H.M.V. label now No. 16 in The Cash Box Top 100 charts.

Harold Fields, Director of John Field Music Publishing Company, currently in the States for two weeks visiting his American associates. Fields publishes the currently popular "Love, Kisses and Heartaches" by Maureen Evans on Oriole.

Ziggy Jackson, Manager of Melodisc Records has just released four E.P.s by Acker Bilk (currently climbing the charts both here and in the States with "Summer Set"). Originally recorded by Doug Dobell and released through Melodisc all are selling well. Melodisc also have a new disk by the famous Irish boxer, Jack Doyle "On The Shores of Bantry Bay" coupled with "In My Father's Arms". This is Doyle's first recording for Melodisc. Also selling well on the same label "Last Sessions of Leadbelly" from the Folkways catalogue.

Replacing the weekly ABC television teenage show "Boy Meets Girls" which will be seen for the last time this week will be a new musical extravaganza "Make A Date" with Ernest Maxin and his guests who will include stars of television, stage and screen. Maxin who has been working in television since 1951 as choreographer and producer, will be making his debut as a performer in this show. He will sing and dance with his guests in addition to being featured as a solo artist and conductor of the 42-piece Ernest Maxin Orchestra. Guest already lined up include Anna Neagle, Dave King, Charlie Drake, Tony Dalli, The Kaye Sisters, Petula Clark, Adam Faith, Jill Day, Craig Douglas and Yana.

Bunny Lewis, Director of the Lewis-Joelle Agency, arrives in New York by TWA on March 12th staying at Park Sheraton Hotel for one week before leaving for Las Vegas and the West Coast returning to England via New York in early April. Lewis will be meeting American agents to negotiate Stateside visits for some of his artists who include Craig Douglas, The Mudlarks, The Avons, Bill Forbes, Lorrae Desmond, David Jacobs, Jack Jackson, Alan Freeman and Bert Weedon. As Director of his promotion company Anglo-American Enterprises, Lewis has been negotiating visits to this country of American artists. He also has his own record company and material recorded by his artists is sold to the major labels for distribution. In this respect he will be visiting Roulette, Top Rank and Pallett who handle his artists in America. Publishingwise Lewis has interests in several companies and plants to exchange material whilst in the States. As a song writer Lewis was responsible for much of the music for the film "Expresso Bongo" and will attend the opening at the Sutton Theatre, New York, on March 14th.

Popular radio and television comedian Tony Hancock has just cut his first disk for Pye—an L.P. as yet untitled featuring two successful episodes from the sound program "Hancock's Half-hour," "The Wild Man of the Woods" and "A Sunday Afternoon at Home." Also on the disk due for release on April 1st are Sydney James, Hatti Jacques, Kenneth Williams and Bill Kerr.

Highlights from this week's releases from Decca include a new Mantovani disk "The Orange Vendor" backed with "In The Spring" and a British version by Wee Willie Harris of the two American hits by Bobby Rydell "Wild One" and "Little Bitty Girl" (Rydell's disk is released here on the Columbia label). From R.C.A. comes a single of the Perry Como "Delaware." Two E.P.s on Brunswick by Jerry Lewis "Big Songs For Little People Volumes 1 and 2." The London label has two big name releases Pat Boone with "Welcome New Lovers" backed with "Words" and by Johnny Cash "Straight A's In Love" with "I Love You Because." And on the same label an E.P. by Pat Boone "Journey To The Centre Of The Earth." On the Durium label the winning song from the San Remo Festival "Romantica" by Marino Marini backed with "Libero" and an E.P. "Marino Marini in Soho."

Top Rank this week releases "I Only Want You" by The Passions now in "The Cash Box Top 100" charts and "Summertime" from Porgy & Bess by Al Martino. Mark Murphy, recently in cabaret over here has a new single on the Capitol label "Send For Me" backed with "Come To Me."

Two Columbia releases: one by Victor Silvester and his Ballroom Orchestra with "Where Or When," "Misty," "Beyond The Sea" and "I Can Give You The Starlight" and a bright newcomer Johnny Shanley waxes "This Day I Promise" backed with "Makin' Love To You." Joe Loss and his Orchestra turns in a new single "Dancing Time For Dancers" on the H.M.V. label including some favorite oldies. Another orchestral favorite on the H.M.V. label Ken Mackintosh, has recorded the theme music from TV's "No Hiding Place" the backing is "Tally Ho." Also on the H.M.V. label Don Lang has a new single by American composer Johnny Horton entitled "Sink The Bismarck" backed with "They Call Him Cliff"—a tribute to Cliff Richard.

The No. 1 American hit "The Theme From A Summer Place" by Percy Faith and his Orchestra is released here on the Philips label. On Mercury Ben Hewitt has recorded a new single "I Want A New Girl Now" with the appropriate backing "My Search." Still climbing the Cash Box Top 100 M.G.M.'s "Lonely Blue Boy" by Conway Twitty is released here on the same label. Country & Western expert Hank Thompson, with the backing of his group The Brazos Valley Boys, has a Western swing release on the Capitol label entitled "A Six Pack To Go" and "What Made Her Change."

ITALY

Mr. Locatelli of the Durium press office announced that Marino Marini will tour Spain, Portugal, France and for a long time, England throughout March, April and May. "Marina" and "Lisbon Mia" sung by Marini are hit songs in Portugal, he said. Marini recently recorded the sound track of the picture "Honeymoon" starring Anthony Steel at the 20th Century Fox studios. The tune by Marini is also titled, "Honeymoon".

Ivan Mogull, New York publisher writes that he will be visiting Milan from May 3rd until May 5th and will be staying at the Grand Hotel Duomo.

Duilio Fiori, Director of the music publishing department of the Titanus film company, informs me that Titanus is likely to make a picture with the sound track of the San Remo winning tune, "Romantica".

Mr. Candida, General Sales Manager of La Voce Del Padrone-Columbia-Maconiphon, accompanied me on a tour of the firm's building—their offices and warehouses. They are the largest I have ever seen so far, and in fact, this record company is considered the biggest in Italy today.

Visited one of the best and most brilliant Italian composers of light music, Maestro Mascheroni. As a publisher, he is a part of the Messaggerie Musicali group. He started composing in 1918 and within 40 years he has collected a long series of successes, many of which crossed national frontiers and, recorded by foreign singers and orchestras, sold very well. In his music we can notice two different kinds of tunes—sentimental and joyful. Some of his numerous successes are, "Papaveri E Papere", known as "Poppa Piccolino", bought by Chappel, New York, "Florin Fiorello", known as "In Love", bought by Ludlow Music, Inc., New York and recorded by Percy Faith on Columbia, "Ti Voglio Baciare" (Wonderful Lips), bought by Hill And Range Songs, Inc., New York, "My One Sin In Life", bought by Davis & Co. Pty., Ltd., New York and recorded by Nat "King" Cole, and finally "Casetta In Canada" (Cottage In Canada), a wonderful merry tune which is already very popular in Italy and will be launched in the USA by Dorelli, CGD-Jamie Records, with the title, "Carnival For Two". At CGD, Mr. Giannini asked me to listen to this new Dorelli recording, and knowing how successful the tune was in Italy, it is easy to foresee that, provided with a good release it will be fairly successful in the States, too. It must be said that the Italian words retain a peculiar charm, which is lost in the translation.

To Mr. Giannini, Manager of CGD Import-Export, our sincerest congratulations on the birth of his first son.

The sales of the San Remo Festival disks are starting to decrease, and also "Romantica" is likely to leave the number 1 spot soon.

Out of the two versions of "Marina", that by Marino Marini continues to be the best seller.

"E'Vero" (It's True), one of the San Remo songs, has been recorded by Marino Barreto on Philips, and the disk has been put on sale just recently.

Italy's Best Sellers

- 1 Romantica (Romantic)—(Dallara—Music—Titanus)

Friendship Spans Atlantic Ocean

NEW YORK—Having developed a close friendship while they were on a five week tour together, Bobby Rydell (l) gives Cliff Richards some pointers on handling drum sticks. Rydell will appear on Richards' TV spectacular April 26 in England.

BENELUX

Larry Douglas of Laerteas Music Co., New York is visiting Dutch recording companies and music publishers.

Ivan Mogull, who currently has the foreign rights to America's number one song, "Running Bear" by Johnny Preston, will visit Amsterdam from May 18th to May 20th and will be staying at the Hotel Amstel.

Papa Bue's Viking Jazz Band, a Danish Dixieland Orchestra, is very beloved in Holland. Their version of "Schlafs Mein Prinzchen, Schlaf Ein", (Mozart) and "Wiegenlied" (Brahms), both classical compositions, look good. Some jazz critics think the record (on the Storyville label, managed by C. N. Rood, L. C. Rijswijk) will surpass the big success of "Petite Fleur", played by Chris Barber and his Orchestra.

Jan Corduener, conductor of Holland's best ballroom orchestra, has been in London for some days to discuss an exclusive record cover for an LP which will be released in April or May of 1960. Jan Corduener's ballroom orchestra provided the dance music during the Eurovision Dance Festival. This music will be released in Holland on an LP and Philips in England will cover. On the cover of the LP there will be a wonderful color-photo of the world champion dancing couple. During his stay in London, Jan Corduener found a pair of tickets for "My Fair Lady" in his room. The reason probably was that he has been the one and only Dutch ballroom orchestra that played the music of that show on a recording in the Benelux countries. All other recordings were from abroad.

When the original sound track LP recording of "Porgy And Bess" (on the Philips label, managed by L. C. Phonogram, Amsterdam) was released in September, 1959, L. C. Phonogram organized a display competition for dealers. The dealer who made the best display with the material of Phonogram (displays, window strips, etc.) and also the most commercial one, got two tickets for the premiere of the film. The winner of this is "Tot en Beers" at Zaandam, Holland.

Fud Leclerc, as representative of Belgium for the Eurovision Song Festival in London on March 29th, will present the song "Mon Amour Pour Toi" by Robert Montal and Jacques Say. A jury of ten men thought this song the best. Philips, Belgium released the song in the Flemish version by Bob Benny called, "Alles Is Voorbij".

Three songs have been successful in the French part of Belgium for quite some time. They are, "Milord" by Edith Piaf on Columbia, "Kriminal Tango" by the Hazy Osterwald Sextet on Polydor, and "Mustpha" by Bob Azzam on Barclay.

Nat "King" Cole will not visit Holland, but will come to Belgium. He will give concerts on April 16th in the Kurzaal at Oostende, on April 17th in the Casino at Knokke and will probably be in Brussels on April 18th or May 8th. There are many LP albums by Nat "King" Cole on the Capitol label in Benelux, and he is very popular in the Benelux territory.

Philips Belgium made a new record of two Dutch tunes, which were very popular in Holland during the last World War—"Diep In Mijn Hart" (Deep In My Heart) and "Als Sterren Flonkrend Aan De Hemel Staan" (When Stars Begin To Twinkle In The Sky). The songs make their comeback on records by the Dutch vocal quintet, High-Five, and singer Jo Leemans. The orchestra is of the internationally famous Francis Bay. Jo Leemans is a Belgian singer who has had great success in the Benelux countries.

Atlantic Fetes Donegan

NEW YORK—British recording star Lonnie Donegan came to the U.S. recently to record American material for release here on Atlantic Records. A party was held in his honor at the Friar's Club to mark his arrival here, at which the above photos were taken.

1. Lonnie (center) is flanked by Atlantic executives Ahmet Ertegun, Nesuhi Ertegun, Jerry Wexler and Bob Kornheiser. 2. SCANDINAVIA

Temata is the newest Swedish record label. It has just started its operation in Malmö, southern Sweden. President of the new company is Allan Marlow, and the first releases will be two EP's with Italy-inspired dance music played by Roland Marno and his Orchestra. The repertoire of the new company will mainly consist of dance music, reports Marlow.

Nora Brockstedt, who sang the Norwegian song "Voi Voi" in the final radio and TV-programme where Norway chose its contribution to this year's Eurovision Song Festival from Royal Festival Hall in London on March 29th, has been chosen by Norwegian radio-TV officials to present the number in the London competition, as well.

There is a strike by musicians against making recordings for certain labels. The MU listed those labels that were on the banned list, but it is reported that recordings are continued to be made as before. Music publishers "arrange" record sessions and "sell" the recording to the labels. Since no publisher is on the list this seems to be acceptable. Scala has made some recordings recently. The label has been out of action for more than 20 years, but the company that "owns" the name, discovered that the MU had forgotten to list Scala among the banned labels.

Anders Holmstedt, president of a.&r. dept. of Skandinaviska Grammophon AB (HMV, Capitol, Odeon, Parlophon, MGM, Mercury, etc.) to Paris for Mercury's international convention. He will return to Stockholm via Brussels where he expects to have some business talk with people from other labels handled by his organization.

Warner Bros. has presented its first selection of records at the Swedish market. According to the critics, everything in the label's catalogue is first class only.

The Swedish contribution to this year's Eurovision song festival from London on March 29th, seems to be a disappointment. Two of the tunes played at the final on Feb. 2nd appeared on last month's Sweden's hit parade in 19th and 20th places. In 1959, the winning song in Sweden was a number One top hit after only a few weeks but this year's scandal around the event seems to have hurt instead of helped.

At present there are over 700,000 TV sets in Sweden, and the interest seems to be the fastest growing in Europe. Sweden ranks third per capita in the European continent.

There is keen competition for the Finnish radio listener. In the morning, when the Finnish stations broadcast religious programs, Radio Estonia (Soviet controlled) broadcasts a program in Finnish for Finland. Mainly pop tunes are offered, and usually they are the most recent Finnish record releases.

Denmark will be represented at the Eurovision song festival this year by Katy Bødtger who will sing "Det var en yndig tid" (It was a lovely time), (March 6th). It received five votes from the jury of ten persons. In second place was a tango-beguine "Gör vad du vil" (Do what you want) which got three votes. The Danish Radio-TV had decided that the singer who performed the winning tune should also present the song in London on March 29th.

N.Y. Festival Of Italian Song Success

NEW YORK—The first New York Festival of Italian Song was held at Carnegie Hall on March 2, 4 and 6. The three day show was presented by Landi Enterprises, radio, TV and theatrical representatives and management firm.

Conducted as the U. S. answer to the San Remo Festival, the show drew capacity crowds, especially for the final night of judging at which thousands were turned away according to Chris Spinoso, New Jersey retailer, distributor and manufacturer of Italian recordings.

Participating were the leading Italian singers, highlighted by a guest appearance by Domenico Modugno singing his award-winning San Remo song, "Libero." Other singers heard were Johnny Dorelli, Miranda Martino, Fausto Cigliano, Nilla Pizzi, Claudio Villa, Ernesto Bonino and Gina Latilla.

The winning songs and their writers and publishers, chosen by audience solicited ballots, were: 1. "La Nostra Melodia" (Cavazzini-Kramer) sung by Johnny Dorelli; 2. "Lasciami" (Enriquez-Villa-Maresca) sung by Claudio Villa; 3. "Giulietta" (Prous-Southern) sung by Ernesto Bonino.

Handling the emcee chores for the three days were New York disk jockeys William B. Williams, Jerry Marshall and Lonny Ross.

According to Spinoso, who covered the three nights of the festival for The Cash Box, and who has made an intensive study of Italian music in the United States, much of the material presented would prove commercial here.

Most of the people approached stated that they would like to see this festival turned into an annual affair.

Como-Boone To Europe

NEW YORK—Perry Como and Pat Boone will go to Europe next month to do shows for presentation on their respective TV shows. Como will do a show from London, while Boone is scheduled to stopover in five European cities for a total of four shows.

Como will head for London on April 13 and will have a show ready for airing on NBC April 28. The program will include only British talent, tho Como will be accompanied on the trip by Frank Gallup, his announcer, Mitchell Ayres, his ork conductor and Clark Jones, his producer.

British talent will include Sir Ralph Richardson, Dame Margot Fontane, and Finella Fielding. Sites shown on the show will include Parliament Square, Covent Garden, Woburn Abbey and the Bull and Bush, a London pub. The show will be aired in England a week after the U.S. broadcast.

Boone is expected to arrive in Paris on April 1, and will do two shows there for viewing here on ABC April 14 and 21. The Paris shows will also include a segment from Brussels. The star will then offer an April 28 show from Munich, Germany, and Salzburg, Austria, and Venice, Italy, will be the locale for singer's final foreign show to be aired May 5.

Italian Songster To Tour N. A.

NEW YORK — Italian songster Mario Abbate is visiting the U. S. and will open a U. S.-Canadian tour this Sunday (20) at the Academy of Music in Brooklyn. The artist records on Visradio label in Italy, distributed here by Italdisc.

GERMANY

The latest news out of the record industry is that the producing of pop records from 50.8 million in 1958 has gone down to 44.8 million in 1959. In the classical field, producing moved up from 6.3 to 8.5 million, which is 16% of the entire production of West Germany. At the same time, the German record import sank, while the export grew.

Popular publisher and songwriter from Munich, Ralph Maria Siegel, produced his first LP, titled "Das Herz von Berlin" (The Heart Of Berlin). This record has old and new songs of Berlin, sung by Fred Oldorp and Erika Brunning, Chorus and Orchestra of Hans Munsonius. Siegel has produced old German music for North and South America for a long time.

The producer of Electrola, Nils Nobach, announced that Rocco Granata has signed an exclusive contract with Electrola in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. While Rocco stayed in Frankfurt he made a short film. Electrola recorded the first prize winning song of the San Remo Festival, "Romantica" backed with "Quando vien la vera," by Bruno Martino and his Orchestra.

Polydor also recorded the two most successful songs of the San Remo Festival, the second prize winner, "Libero" in the original version with Domenico Modugno and the Festival Orchestra of Angelini, backed with "Romantica" by Achille Togliani and the Orchestra of Eros Sciorilli.

While in San Remo Helmut Zacharia signed a contract which guarantees him 8 TV shows in Italy. They shall begin this summer in Rome, Naples and Sicily. In these shows, Helmut will be his own composer, arranger and soloist.

Hazy Osterwald and his Sextet will appear in Arosa, Switzerland as he does each year from May 8th on. He will then tour South Germany.

Miles Davis will be in Germany to tour 8 towns. He will give concerts in Berlin, Munich, Stuttgart, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Essen, Keiserslautern and Nuernberg. German jazz fans regard him as the best trumpeteer of all.

"Porgy And Bess," should have had its first European premiere in London, but the premiere will now be held in Germany on April 1st under the patronage of Germany's ex-President Theodore Heuss. The original sound track version on Philips.

One of the leading German conductors, Wolfgang Sawallisch, signed with Philips and will tour Germany and Austria with the Vienna Symphony.

News from Teldec is that the original version of "Red River Rock" by Johnny and The Hurricanes is second on the German hit parade. Billy Vaughn's "Unter dem Doppeladler" on London is also very successful.

Germany is awaiting England's Acker Bilk and his Paramount Jazz Band with great interest. When he arrives at the Hamburg airport it will be filmed for German television. He will appear on the German television show, "Berliner Luft." Today every concert by Bilk is sold out. His first three LP's were sensational hits. One of his records is now in the Top Ten. His three most successful records are, "Mr. Acker Requests," and LP, "The Noble Art of Mr. Acker Bilk," and "The Seven Ages Of Acker Bilk" (published in 1960).

Elvis Presley, after a two year stint in the army in Germany is now back in the United States. At the airport in Frankfurt he held the press he wants to become a serious actor and singer.

Sedaka Int'l Favorite

NEW YORK—With his recent RCA Victor recording of "Oh Carol" currently riding high on the Top Ten charts in eight different countries, 19-year-old Neil Sedaka looms as one of the brightest prospects among the current crop of young singers to be established as a world headliner.

The enthusiasm for Sedaka as an in-person performer has spread to record shops all over the world. With full returns on "Oh Carol" not yet complete, sales figures reportedly stand at 800,000 for England, Germany, Belgium, Australia, New Zealand, Norway, Brazil, Holland, Chile, Denmark, The Philippines, and Sweden. Anticipated sales in South Africa, Canada, Japan, and other key international markets are expected to swell the Oh Carol sales total to well over 1,200,000.

Sedaka is scheduled to headline a package that will tour Australia and Japan, leaving March 21. Some six months ago, he topped a highly successful package that trekked to Hawaii. A European tour is currently in the planning stage by Sedaka's management team, Al Nevins and Don Kirshner Associates.

Mark Dinning To Australia

NASHVILLE—When Mark Dinning—whose MGM disk, "Teen Angel," is a smash—boards the jet for Australia this week (18), he will be accompanied by W. D. Kilpatrick, manager of Acuff-Rose Artists Corporation, and a director of the country Music Association. Dinning is set to play six Australian dates for Lee Gordon, booked through his U.S. representative, Art Schurgin.

Prior to departure, Dinning and Kilpatrick will spend several days in Hollywood for confabs concerning motion pictures for the singing star. In Australia, they will visit the Acuff-Rose Publications office in Sydney. Kilpatrick also will arrange future tours in Australia and the Far East for other artists under his firm's direction, and will wrap up negotiations concerning the Roy Acuff "Open House" telefilm series filmed in Australia by Acuff last year and now distributed by Acuff-Rose Artists Corporation.

AUSTRALIA

Under their recently completed agreement with the Rank organization, Festival Records has issued a whole flock of new singles that seem assured of success here. They include Jimmy Clanton's "Go Jimmy Go", "What In The World's Come Over You" by Jack Scott, the Toni Fisher version of "The Big Hurt" and Freddy Cannon's "Way Down Yonder In New Orleans". Festival is preparing to release an album by Freddy Cannon to coincide with Cannon's visit to this country (mid-March) for the Lee Gordon office. The addition of the Rank material to their catalog gives Festival a strong hand in the hit market.

In a surprise move taking effect immediately, Coronet Records (which handles the Columbia label here) increased the retail prices of some of its products. Singles went from 9/3d. to 10/., EPs formerly retailing at 15/., are now 15/6 and their powerful range of albums that sold at 51/., now go to 52/6; this group includes most of the Broadway cast show LPs, "My Fair Lady" etc. At the time of writing no official advice has been received giving reasons for the increases. In the case of EPs and albums, the lift in retail prices brings them in line with the regular prices of most other major labels.

Don Lunn, a leading disk-jockey in Tasmania with Station 7LA, is running a regular weekly series of "exchange" DJ sessions with Conway Balfour of Station KCJB, Dakota. Don says the Balfour programs he runs from 7LA are proving a good attraction. This exchange method gives Don Lunn the opportunity to be heard in the United States. This type of two-way disk-jockey traffic is another step towards bringing the trade together on an international scale.

The Coca-Cola sponsored "HiFi Club" running weekly from GTV-9 in Melbourne and hosted by popular television personality Bert Newton (in looks, Newton bears a fairly close resemblance to America's Dick Clark) is expanding its activities to include the promotion of a series of Saturday afternoon teenage dances. First dance, to be held on 12th March, stars Johnny Rebb and The Rebels, Frankie Davidson and The La Ronde Brothers. Already the Coca-Cola "HiFi Club" has several thousand members.

To tie-in with Maurice Chevalier's current theatre season for the J. C. Williamson Circuit RCA has made a rush release of the 12" album "Thank Heaven For Maurice Chevalier". With the tremendous publicity that Chevalier is receiving here RCA should do well with this one, it contains most of the great Maurice Chevalier hits, "Louise", "Mimi" etc. Jim Cuff, Merchandising Manager for RCA Records, is very enthusiastic over the sales potential of this disk.

Big plans are already under way for the forthcoming Australian tour by leading American jazz pianist Dave Brubeck, who is scheduled to arrive in Sydney on 16th March. In addition to a concert series, Brubeck is tipped to video-tape a couple of TV shows for future use. He is also booked to appear on "Meet The Press" TV programs soon after his arrival. This is a session where he will be quizzed for thirty minutes by a panel of journalists. Coronet Records is now issuing the new Brubeck album "Time-Out". It also has his "Gone With The Wind" LP slated for immediate release in stereo. This gives Dave Brubeck a total of fourteen albums on the Australian market, one of the biggest disk representations in this country for any artist. Brubeck's Australian tour is being handled by Aztec Services, a company headed by Ken Brodziak.

Among new singles we find "Puppy Love" by Paul Anka, "This Could Be The Start Of Something" c/w "Cheek To Cheek" by Eydie Gorme and Steve Lawrence from their new album, "We Got Us"; "Outside My Window" by The Fleetwoods, "Sweet Nuthins" Brenda Lee, "Forever" by Billy Walker, "Harlem Nocturne" by The Viscounts, Nat Kendrick's "Mashed Potatoes" and "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy" by Freddy Cannon.

W & G Records has released the first stereo single ever to be issued in this country. It comes from the American Wynne label and features Ted Weems and His Orchestra with "Heartaches" and "Mickey". The original disk of "Heartaches" by Weems was a tremendous seller here many years ago but is not available now so W & G should score heavily with this new issue in both monophonic and stereophonic sound.

March Cannon Month In N. Z.

NEW YORK — March is Freddie Cannon month in New Zealand, according to Phil Warren of Top Rank, which handles the star's U.S. outlet, Swan Records. Cannon's "Way Down Yonder In New Orleans" is a smash there as it is here and his latest single, "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy," will be released there this month.

Top Rank's seventeen salesmen are on the road promoting the Cannon LP, "The Explosive Freddy Cannon," and another single, "Okefenokee." Cinema, a big teen magazine, plus other magazines and newspapers are carrying Cannon feature stories and radio stations are devoting special shows to the performer.

U.A.-L.P. Hitting In England

NEW YORK—The United Artists' album "Odds Against Tomorrow" by the Modern Jazz Quartet has stepped out as a strong seller in Britain where it has been released on the London label, the diskery reported last week. The album consists of the Modern Jazz Quartet's treatment of John Lewis' score for the "Odds Against Tomorrow" film.

EMI Cuts Show Score

LONDON—EMI has cut a new LP of the successful musical here, "Fings Ain't Wot They Used T'be." Sixteen numbers from the show were recorded for release on the H.M.V. label. Music and lyrics are by Lionel Bart. Publisher of the score is Peter Maurice.

PHILADELPHIA — Dick Clark welcomes Andy Williams for a guest appearance on his show. Williams obliged by singing his latest Cadence single release, "Wake Me When It's Over." His new album, just released, is titled after his recent hit, "The Village Of St. Bernadette."

UA's "The Unforgiven" Film Track In Major Promo Drive With Flick

NEW YORK—United Artists has set a major music campaign for Hecht-Hill-Lancaster's "The Unforgiven" pegged to the United Artists Records sound track album with music composed and conducted by Dimitri Tiomkin.

The drive will blanket record stores and retail outlets in every major market of the country in advance of key regional openings set for Easter. Heavy emphasis will also be placed on disk jockey promotions over local and network radio and television stations, window displays and posters, contests and other local level promotions.

The album cover features Burt Lancaster and Audrey Hepburn in a dramatic scene from the picture. Directed by John Huston and produced by James Hill in Technicolor and Panavision, "The Unforgiven" will be the Easter attraction at the Loew's Capitol Theatre in New York.

The film co-stars Audie Murphy, John Saxon, Charles Bickford, Lillian Gish, Albert Salmi, Joseph Wiseman and June Walker. The motion picture is based on the best-selling novel by Alan Le May and was filmed entirely in Durango, Mexico, from a screenplay by Ben Maddow.

Laurie Sets "Can-Can" Jazz LP

NEW YORK—Laurie Records has announced the release next week of an LP, "Bernard Peiffer Plays The Jazz Version Of Cole Porter's 'Can Can'." The flick version of Broadway hit premiered last week. The pianist's previous release for the label was "Bernard Peiffer Plays Modern Jazz For People Who Like Original Music."

Capitol Gets "Can-Can" Film Soundtrack

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol Records will release the soundtrack album from the $6 million motion picture "Can-Can," it was announced last week by Lloyd W. Dunn, vice president for A&R. The album will be released within three weeks, Dunn said.

The film version of Cole Porter's hit Broadway show stars exclusive Capitol recording artist Frank Sinatra, Shirley MacLaine, Maurice Chevalier and Louis Jourdan. Another Capitol

"Can-Can" premiered March 9 in New York, Chicago, Boston and Miami, and in Hollywood March 10.

"Can-Can," a 20th Century-Fox release, was filmed in the Todd-AO process. It was produced by Jack Cummings, directed by Walter Lang, and written by Dorothy Kingsley and Charles Lederer. The film went into production in August, 1959 and took 51 working days to complete.

Roulette Sees Trend In Singles Released From Successful LP's

NEW YORK — In recent months, according to Joe Kolsky, Roulette Records' executive vice-president, the diskery has discovered an increased need to issue single records from albums that are enjoying sales success. "In the past, this necessity has only been an occasional thing, but has now become, despite the current lag in the industry's single business common occurrence at Roulette," Kolsky said.

To start off, with both sides of the new Jimmie Rodgers' single, "Just A Closer Walk With Thee" and "Joshua Fit The Battle O' Jericho," released last week, were culled from his latest album, "When The Spirit Moves You." Also released last week was guitarist Johnny Smith's first single effort on Roost, "My Dear Little Sweetheart" which was penned by Smith and is the title tune of his current LP. The flip side, "Once In Awhile" was also taken from this set. The Ronnie Hawkins current single, "Clara" and "Lonely Hours" were pulled out of Hawkins' second LP, "Mr. Dynamo". Two single disks that Roulette reports are receiving heavy juke-box sales are Joe Williams "I Was Telling Her About You" and "Here's To My Lady" and Count Basie's recent etching of "It Had To Be You" and "How Am I To Know".

The Joe Williams disk is from his new album, "That Kind Of Woman" and the Basie single stems from his, "Dance Along With Basie" LP. The next Billy Eckstine single will be taken from his new album "Once More With Feeling" featuring arrangements and ork conducted by Billy May. According to the schedule, a heavy majority of the forthcoming single releases will all be tapped from albums.

Levitan Named Golden Crest A&R Head

NEW YORK — In an expansion move, Clark Galehouse, prexy of Golden Crest Records, has announced the appointment of Cy Levitan as A & R chief to head up Golden Crests newly accelerated pop program.

Levitan, an attorney turned musician, brings his experience as arranger-pianist, cleffer and band booker to the label. He has produced and helped produce many albums and singles for Golden Crest within the past year including entries by Shep Fields, The Wailers, Armand Hug, Jon and Sondra Steele, The Confederate Colonels, The Three Graces and newly signed Paul Peters. Singles by The Graces and Peters will be released shortly.

According to Kolsky, this trend is not a sudden turn of events or just a temporary coincidence. He says that as "Roulette's album sales have increased, the demand for single records by top artists from their latest albums has grown. The trend in the business used to be that when the artist scores with a hit single it became the focal point of a new album. Today the album is giving impetus to the release of a hit single. A few seasons back, Roulette had one of their biggest hits from the LP, 'At Play With The Playmates,' with an item called 'Beep-Beep'."

Columbia To Wax "Bye Bye Birdie" B'way Score

NEW YORK—Columbia's Original Cast production of "Bye Bye Birdie" is scheduled for the recording microphones shortly after the musical's Broadway opening on April 14th, according to an announcement by Goddard Lieberson, President of the Company and producer of the album.

The story of "Bye Bye Birdie" deals with the impact of a popular singing idol on a small midwestern town and what happens when he's drafted. The book was written by Mike Stewart, top comedy writer for Sid Caesar. Music and lyrics are the work of songwriting team Charles Strouse and Lee Adams, who provided most of the material in both editions of "The Shoestring Revue" and have composed special numbers for leading television and nightclub personalities. Noted dancer Gower Champion will direct and choreograph the production; Eliot Lawrence is musical director.

Chita Rivera, Dick Van Dyke and Kay Medford head the large cast. Miss Rivera is best known for the role of Anita, which she created in the original production of "West Side Story" and also performed in the London version. One of the most popular of the younger TV comedians, Dick Van Dyke was seen earlier this season in "The Girls Against the Boys." Comedienne Kay Medford appeared in "A Hole in the Head" and "Mr. Wonderful".

Before opening at the Martin Beck Theatre in New York, the show is slated for a pre-Broadway engagement in Philadelphia from March 16 through April 9.

Capitol Engineers Transfer Historical Cylinders To Tape

HOLLYWOOD—Engineers at Capitol Records' Los Angeles plant have developed what may be a new method of reproducing and improving sound from early recordings—"unlocking part of history"—as one authority phrased it.

Capitol engineer Roy S. Berkman, in collaboration with chief engineer Edward H. Uecke, spent more than three months restoring the sound quality of some 180 cylinders of the 400 in the Lummis-James collection of Los Angeles' Southwest Museum.

After more than 50 years, only about 180 cylinders, or four hours of sound, remained clear enough for transfer to modern magnetic tape. Some of these were improved as much as 100 per cent in audio fidelity.

For the first time, the recordings may be played again and again for museum visitors on a complete sound system which Capitol designed and installed last week at the museum.

The new tapes were premiered March 2 before members and guests of the Southern California Historical Society.

In the course of their work, Capitol engineers developed a method of adapting a modern stereo cartridge to an old Edison phonograph, "immensely improving reproduction," Capitol said.

This meant that even the cylinders which were too deteriorated for transfer to tape would now be of new interest to scholars. Time and the early heavy and crude reproduction equipment had taken its toll on the soft beeswax of the first cylinders, but anthropologists can now hear more of the sound originally recorded than ever before.

Carl S. Dentzel, director of the Southwest Museum, said the cylinder collection consists mainly of early Spanish-Mexican California music as well as chants, songs, and ceremonials of Southwest Indians.

"Today it would be impossible to find anybody who remembers these songs of their heritage," Dentzel commented. "They were dying out even as Lummis recorded them" (Charles F. Lummis was a founder of the museum).

In explaining the significance of improved sound on the pioneer recordings, Dentzel said:

"You can now actually hear them. Before, you had only an idea. It is like unlocking part of history. Without these advances, many of the recordings in our collection were of no value."

On one of the recordings, the actual voice of Sam Temple is heard, telling his side of the same 1877 murder described by Helen Hunt Jackson in her classic novel of early Southern California, "Ramona." As the murderer Jim Farrar in the book, Temple became the symbol of frontier injustice to the American Indian.

Peter Fremd Upped At Columbia

NEW YORK—The appointment of Peter Clark Fremd to the position of Columbia Records director of information services has been announced by Miss Deborah Ishlon, coordinator, creative services.

In his new position Fremd is directly responsible to Miss Ishlon for the development of public relations programs and supervision of all publicity activities relating to Columbia and Epic products, artists, policies, organization, programs and personnel.

Before joining Columbia in October 1958 as manager of popular record publicity, Fremd was in charge of radio and TV films and publicity for the Longines Wittnauer Watch Company. For several years prior he was active in the direction and production of television films, stage and radio shows. As a performing musician, Fremd has appeared as a percussionist with symphony orchestras, dance and jazz bands throughout the country.

Snow No Deterrent To Freed

HARTFORD, CONN.—A twenty-one inch snow storm here over the March 5-6 weekend didn't prove much of a barrier to the teenagers who wanted to see Alan Freed present some of their favorite artists. It was still snowing at 9 AM Saturday, and the Hartford State Theatre—site of the show—received many calls as to whether the stints would go on. They did and the shows did $18,500 in 2 days. Performers who appeared included Jackie Wilson, Freddie Cannon, Little Anthony, The Skyliners, JoAnn Campbell and The Isley Bros.

Mercury To Increase Exposure of Artists in Europe

CHICAGO—"In the field of phonograph records, a sales trend that becomes established in the United States tends to be repeated in Europe", says Mercury Records executive Irwin H. Steinberg. "The European trend in the past few months has been to sell fewer E.P.'s, with the 12-inch LP becoming more and more important to overseas dealers and record buyers, just as it is in the U.S. market."

Steinberg returned last week from Mercury's International Sales and Administration Seminar which took place in Paris March 2nd to March 5th. Presiding over the meet was the firm's president, Irving B. Green, with Art Talmadge, A&R chief, and Wilma Cozart, head of Mercury's classical division in New York, also winging overseas to attend. Representatives from Mercury licensees in 16 countries gathered at Hotel Scribe for the forum.

"One of the issues under discussion and on which good progress was made", continues Steinberg, "was the subject of depth exposure for artists and catalog. There is a tendency among overseas licensees to concentrate on a few items, rather than giving the catalog deep enough exposure."

"Statistics and tabulations were presented at the meetings designed to show the number of Mercury artists remaining unexposed in each of the foreign markets represented by each attending licensee. A plan was then developed for extending this exposure in order to provide a broader present and future basis for sale of the Mercury catalog."

"As a part of this program, Mercury plans to increase the number of artist tours and overseas TV appearances, particularly the new and unexposed artists in our roster. Such artists as The Platters, Dinah Washington, Quincy Jones, Sarah Vaughan and others are already international best-sellers, with regular European appearances a part of their schedules. A better example of the deeper and fresher exposure we are concerned with would be the Australian and British tour of Johnny Preston which starts later this month. Another outgrowth of the convention's discussions is that Mercury is setting up cooperative overseas radio programs, and these too will concentrate on depth exposure for the catalog."

Highly pleased also, with the results of the Paris conclave is Irving Green who considers regular get-togethers with licensees indispensable to Mercury's world-wide operation. "Taking priority on the agenda were discussions of ways and means to integrate activities between licensees, particularly of increasing the flow of manufactured parts from one country to another country which has lesser facilities," he reports.

"There were, of course, a number of separate meetings to consider the particular problems of distribution, promotion, and sale, as they applied to individual markets. After a number of these international seminars, however, we find the individual problems decreasing, and the better acquaintance and cooperation between licensees welding them together into one highly coordinated operation."

Forty delegates, representing Mercury licensees in Britain, France, Holland, Belgium, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Sweden, Germany, Denmark, Switzerland, Israel, and Finland, attended the three-day session. Coordination of the business and social program was under the direction of Brice Somers, supervisor of Mercury's International Division. Art Talmadge, who remained in Europe on Artists and Repertoire matters will return to Chicago at the end of next week.

Capitol Rushes Riddle's Dancing "Can Can" LP

HOLLYWOOD — Nelson Riddle, who arranged and conducted the music for the motion picture "Can-Can," offers the same Cole Porter tunes with a dancing point of view in an album which Capitol Records is currently rushing out in advance of its soundtrack recording from the 20th Century-Fox film.

"Music from the Motion Picture 'Can-Can,'" played for dancing by Nelson Riddle and his orchestra, includes some of the best Porter tunes: "It's All Right With Me," "You Do Something To Me," "Let's Do It," "Just One Of Those Things," "I Love Paris," and "C'est Magnifique."

The Riddle arrangements for the album call for two different orchestras, the strings predominating in one, a full big-band complement of brass, reeds, and strings featured in the other. Solo passages are taken by such out-of-the-way instruments as the bass flute, flugel horn, and bass trombone.

Dot Appoints Bailey

HOLLYWOOD — Frank Hamilton has been named Administrative Assistant to Dot Records' International Director, James N. Bailey.

Hamilton, in his new post, assumes responsibility for all purchasing for the company, in addition to all other administrative duties at Dot Records.

Dwain Musical Director

NEW YORK—Jerry Kanner, internationally known composer-arranger-conductor, was recently signed to a long term contract as general musical director of Dwain Records. Label prexy Billy Martin (l.) is shown with Kanner at the pact signing.

5 New Kapp LP's

NEW YORK—Kapp Records announced it will release five new albums this month. Heading the list is the first album by songster Jerry Keller titled "Here Comes Jerry Keller." The remaining four albums in the release include "Marais & Miranda Go Native," songs of the South African Veldt by the folk specialists; "Brazilian Choo-Choo," Latin dance rhythms by Horacio Diaz and his Orchestra; "Songs Of Faith And Inspiration" by Bill Hayes; and "European Hits In America" by Richard Wolfe.

NARM Polls Rack Jobbers

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The National Association of Record Merchandisers has mailed to its membership ballots for the upcoming 1959 awards. There are ten categories, nine of which ask for selections for awards and the tenth requesting gross volume record sales. All information submitted on the questionnaire will be kept confidential, with only the total results of the balloting made public.

The ballot requests three selections in each category. The categories are: Best Selling Hit Record, Best Selling Regular Priced LP Record, Best Selling Economy (low priced) LP Record, Best Selling Extended Play (EP) Record, Best Selling Male Vocalist, Best Selling Female Vocalist, Best Selling Vocal Group, Best Selling Specialty LP Record and Best Manufacturer-Sponsored Promotion.

Results of the poll will be announced at the NARM convention in Las Vegas, March 31.

DETROIT—Robin Seymour (r), nainstay of WKMH, presents Ben Jaruso of Columbia Record Distributors, this city, with the Columbia January Single Record Award.

The award is presented monthly to the Columbia salesman going the greatest percentage over quota, and Jaruso went 162% over quota.

Walter Brennan On Dot

HOLLYWOOD—Walter Brennan, star of Hollywood films and television, currently starring in TV's "The Real McCoys" series, has recorded his first commercial disk, "Dutchman's Gold," for Dot Records.

In keeping with the current popularity of "spoken" records, Brennan, three-time movie Oscar-winner, narrates the true legend of the lost gold in Arizona's Superstition Mountain.

Brennan was acquired by Dot for the narration, when Billy Vaughn, the label's music director, asked that the veteran actor be negotiated to sign for the vocal for his already recorded orchestral sound track of "Dutchman's Gold."

Brennan's first Dot record is packaged in an attractive picture sleeve, showing him as he appears weekly on "The Real McCoys" television show.

Allison Named Stone GPM

HOLLYWOOD—Cliffie Stone has appointed Joe Allison as general professional manager of his (Stone's) four music firms. Appointment becomes effective immediately.

Allison will take over the operation of Stone's three BMI firms; Central Songs, Century Songs and Opul Music and of the ASCAP pubbery, Snyder Music.

Allison, who has written two big hits himself, "Teen-Age Crush" and the current "He'll Have To Go", will plane to Nashville, Tennessee on March 24 to spend two weeks in the territory looking for material and writers.

Fowley Forms United Flackery

HOLLYWOOD—Kim Fowley, formerly of the Doris Day office, announced last week that he has exited the Martin Melcher-Doris Day-owned Arwin Productions to head up the newly formed United Record Promotions based in this city. Fowley leaves the firm after being associated with such successes as "Pillow Talk" and Miss Day's current release "Any Way The Wind Blows".

Fowley added that United Record Promotions is currently handling the West Coast promotion on "Cherry Pie" by Skip & Flip; "Bongo Boogie" by Preston Epps; "Rockin' Charlie" by the Bobby Petersen Quintet, and "Mashed Potatoes" by Nat Kendrick and the Swans.

Fowley's United Record Promotions operates out of offices at 8966 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, Calif.

Omega Pre-Pak Offer

HOLLYWOOD—Omega Records is now offering dealers a pre-pak containing 10 albums, five new releases in both stereo and monaural versions, for the special price of $10 per pre-pak.

Orders for Omega pre-paks will be taken by Omega distributors and will be shipped directly to dealers by Ardco, national distributors of the Omega line.

Pre-paks will contain one each stereo, and one each monaural issue of the following March releases: "Under Paris Skies" by Roger Lecussant and his Club Lido Orchestra; "Swingin' Night People" by the Francis Bay Orchestra; "Jazz At The Olympics" by the Ralph Sutton Quartet; "Strings Around The World—Vol. 2" by the London Pops Orchestra; and "Big Band Blast" by the Francis Bay Orch.

Also included in the March release are: "Sister Rosetta Tharpe"; "Zitherama" with Anton Karas; "Piano Russe" with the Duo-Pianos of Leah & Shirley Effenbach; "Fast But Soft" by the Buck Clayton Six; and "Dreamsville" by the label's new vocal group, the Monn-Keys. All of Omega's March releases are being issued in stereo and mono with the exception of the Buck Clayton package which will be available in mono only.

NRC-Satellite Pact

BRUNSWICK, TENN.—National Recording Corporation of Atlanta, Georgia, and Satellite Record Co. of Memphis, Tennessee, have completed negotiations regarding exclusive distribution rights of the Satellite label by N. R. C.

The first release is "Prove Your Love" and "Destiny" by Charlie Heinz.

The record will be shipped to deejay's and N. R. C. distributors this week.

Columbia's Hoffman To Chi

CHICAGO—Mort Hoffman has been appointed to the position of regional sales manager for the entire midwestern part of the United States by Columbia Records.

Hoffman, who will maintain his offices in the CBS Building in this city, was district sales manager for Columbia Records in Pittsburgh prior to his promotion and transfer. His scope of operation there included the Cleveland and Buffalo markets. He has been associated with Columbia Records since 1948.

Hoffman explained that as regional manager throughout this area he will supervise sales and promotion over several district managers. In this way Hoffman, as regional manager, will be able to maintain a tighter control over the entire distributive merchandising organization in the Midwest. Initially he will concentrate on Chicago and Milwaukee.

Maurie Rose, former district sales manager in this area, was transferred during this reshuffling to the Baltimore, Maryland territory. Most of his 10-year tenure with Columbia was spent in managing the Cincinnati operation.

IRMA Meets In N. Y.

NEW YORK—The Independent Record Manufacturers Association (IRMA), an association of record pressers and platers has formed a committee to help increase the organization's membership. Formation of the committee came as a result of IRMA's monthly meet here.

Weinstroer-Rank Part

NEW YORK—In a joint statement made last week from the New York office, Bernard T. Ness, general manager of the record division of The Rank Organization and Norman Weinstroer, general manager of Rank Records of America, Inc., announced that Weinstroer will no longer be associated with Rank.

Both parties stated that the termination of the association was an amicable one, reached by mutual agreement.

For the time being, Weinstroer's duties in America will be assumed by Ness.

Weinstroer, who is on vacation, will, upon his return examine a number of offers and will announce his plans in the near future.

Capitol Mid-March Pop LP's

HOLLYWOOD—"Brass And Bamboo," a blending of big-band jazz with Oriental instrumental sounds, introduces arranger-conductor Tak Shindo in one of two new albums on Capitol Records' mid-month pop-album release.

The second new LP is also a Capitol debut. Singer Dick Williams follows brother Andy Williams into the solo recording spotlight with an album titled "Love Is Nothin' But Blues."

For his unusual arrangements, Shindo used oriental strings, flutes, and percussions as freely as the domestic brand of trumpets, clarinets, and drums—a formula the conductor believes is hitherto untried in popular American music. The result is a "new personality for standards" like "Caravan," "Poinciana," "I'm Beginning To See The Light," and "Love Is A Many-Splendored Thing."

Among the exotic-sounding Oriental instruments heard are: the koto, a 13-string Japanese zither; the samisen, a three-string guitar; Kabuki drums, bamboo flutes, Buddha temple gongs, and an assortment of bells and chimes.

Dick Williams started singing professionally when he was nine, as a pint-sized member of the successful Williams Brothers night club act. Although brother Andy was first to score as a single, Dick piled up solo experience as vocalist with the Harry James band and as a regular performer on Tennessee Ernie Ford's daytime TV show.

His debut album offers the singer set in intricate vocal and instrumental arrangements, created by Jack Marshall.

"MEMORY OF LOVE" (2:37)
[Cedarwood BMI—Phillips]

[Sure-Fire BMI—Mann]

KITTY WELLS (Decca 31065)

● Again the "Queen" comes up with a powerful coupling which shouldn't have much of a wait for chart acceptance. They're both plaintive ballads, bearing Kitty's stamp of country authority. "Memory" is a sentimental souvenir of lost love, while "Left To Right," also on this theme, marks the end of an affair. Give them a whirl and watch the reaction.

"SENTENCED TO DIE"
(2:53)
[Sure-Fire BMI—Mann]

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU" (2:16)
[Sure-Fire BMI—Burroughs]

WILBURN BROTHERS (Decca 31062)

● Doyle and Teddy Wilburn's bright hill sound on these two sides makes for a powerful country coupling. "Sentenced To Die" is a poignant prison lament with romantic overtones and the boys really turn on the tears for it. A complete change of pace is the rousing "You Can't Take It With You" comedy opus. Both can score simultaneously.

"MY DESTINY" (2:23)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—Carter]

"PLEASE CALL TODAY" (2:16)
[Opal BMI—Hix, Hix]

WANDA JACKSON (Capitol 4354)

● Thrush is in a heartfelt mood on both sides of her new release. The two touching ballads, back-to-back, offer her a dual chance of chart success. "My Destiny", a quiet waltz, has a searching lyric that stirs up the emotions. Continuing in the same sad romance vein, "Please Call Today" is a medium paced ballad pleader. Spin 'em both and take your choice.

JOHNNIE HUMBERT
(Columbia 41585)

B+ "I CAN'T HELP WONDERING"
(3:03) [Cedarwood BMI—Tillis, Peddy] Infectious shuffle beat rhythm encases this sensitive blue saga which Humbert sells with solid country-pop authority. Combo-chorus helps beautifully. Rates careful attention.

B+ "WHERE IS YOUR CONSCIENCE"
(2:53) [Cedarwood BMI—Tillis] Another well-produced side features the songster (with bright combo-chorus assistance) delving into another blue side of romance. Excellent coupling.

BILL BRADLEY (Brooke 113)

B+ "FIVE YEARS AND A DAY"
(2:47) [Jan-Pat BMI—Bradley] Bradley's voice has that ear-arresting sound needed for chart success. With just slight guitar accompaniment he gives this prison lament the soft-sell treatment. Of sleeper potential.

B+ "WHIPPOORWILL" (2:19) [Jan-Pat BMI—Bradley] Bradley indulges in more tender vocalizing, here on a touching, sad romantic. Two excellent sides which can succeed with exposure.

BILL CARTER (Ozark 1234)

C+ "SECRET DATE" (2:35) [4 Star BMI—O'Neal, Stephenson] Carter has a secret love and transfers the meaning to this middle beat plaintive. He gets nice chorus help too.

C+ "COOL TOM CAT" (1:50) [Mississippi Valley BMI—O'Neal] Frantic rock-a-billy swinger features hip lyrics delivered energetically.

REX BINGHAM (Toppa 1011)

B+ "THE FIRE IS BURNING LOW"
(2:37) [Mixer BMI—Mosby, Mosby] Bingham gets across the dying-out romance feeling with flying colors. A very attractive quick beat ballad that could step out.

B+ "JUST LIKE BEFORE" (2:10) [Mixer BMI—Mosby, Mosby] A similarly expressed theme also makes for interesting listening. Gal who assists the chanter on each side is a fine vocal companion.

LEON McAULIFF (Cimarron 4046)

B "BOOGIE ON STRINGS" (1:54) [Cimarron BMI—McAuliff] Unusual combination is the boogie-woogie/western swing melody here so effectively carved out by McAuliff and the Cimarron Boys. A contagious session.

C+ "BEAR CREEK HOP" (1:48) [Cimarron BMI—Brower] The instrumental offering on this half gets McAuliff back in the hot western groove. Two hooper specials.

BUZZ BUSBY (Starday 483)

B "DON'T COME RUNNIN' BACK TO ME" (2:06) [Starday BMI—Busby, Harlow] Traditional item in a fast-breaking setting gets the energetic treatment from Busby. Attractive platter that could collect some coin.

B "COLD AND WINDY NIGHT" (2:30) [Starday BMI—Busby, Harlow] Odd, high pitched multi-track vocalizing gives this blue ballad an individual sound.

Country Round Up

Leon McAuliff signed an exclusive seven year contract with MCA, the nation's largest talent management agency. E. O. Stacy, vice president of special events of MCA, commented interestingly that "the growing interest in television western acts for personal appearances prompted the signing of McAuliff. TV western stars are more in demand at state fairs, horse shows, night clubs than ever before. Leon and his band are the top western music aggregation in the business today. It is only logical that we have them to support the top TV western acts." Leon's personal manager, Don Thompson, negotiated the contract. . . . Nat Nigberg, currently negotiating for the sale of his "Country America" television rights, is preparing a new musical TV show under his Surrey Productions banner. Mildred Walsh and Chet Collins, Nigberg's writers, are putting the finishing touches on the projected series, said to be a unique innovation in TV musical presentations. . . . Twenty-one year old Bonnie Brown (of the Browns) disclosed last week that she had eloped with Dr. Gene Dale Ring, of Little Rock, Ark. Our best wishes to Bonnie on this happy occasion. Due to group's heavy commitments, the newlyweds will forego a honeymoon until a later date. Bonnie's good fortune is coincidental with the group's current hit, "Teen-Ex," a story of a teen-age elopement. . . . Personal letter from another Bonnie—Bonnie King ("Miss O.L.A.")—comes with the news that the men of Southern Michigan State Prison are once again world's blood donor champions, with a total of 2061 pints donated to the Red Cross during their last blood drive, which took place Feb. 23-26. Though Miss King couldn't make the big show there on Feb. 28 due to inclement weather, the Blue Echos, the Catalinas and Marlene Baarda and her McKeonettes put on a fine show for the boys.

LEON McAULIFF

"Jubilee U.S.A." 's 300-pound performer-assistant producer Bill Ring (who avows that fat men are jolly only because they're too big to run, too fat to fight) emceed eight performances of last week's annual Outdoor Sports Show in Springfield. Johnny Horton, owner of a firm which manufactures artificial fishing baits at home in Louisiana, was grand marshal of the Sports Show's opening-day parade. . . . With his own private fleet of personal appearance "rolling stock," "Jubilee U.S.A." bandleader Slim Wilson is ready for come-what-may on the calendar of Jim McConnell's Top Talent booking office. In his trip-planning, Slim chooses from a Cadillac sedan, a Ford station wagon and a kiddie-car sized Opel, while his Jubilee band travels in two Volkswagen buses. In the first two months of '60 alone, Wilson has already played Pennsylvania, Colorado, Illinois, Maryland and North Carolina. . . . Shivering Bobby Lord is back home from battling the blizzards of the east coast. . . . Jubilee's Leroy Van Dyke received more mail after singing "El Paso," on the ABC-TV show than any song he's done in more than a year. . . . Bill Anderson put the finishing touches on his forthcoming Decca release, at a session in Nashville last week, and began preparing to leave for a 15 day tour of California. Tour is set through Steve Stebbins' Americana Agency in Woodland Hills, out there. Early April is the date Decca has set for Anderson's new release. . . . According to the CMA's monthly closeup, four more stations have made the move to country programming: WIWI-New Albany, Ind., WVTS-Terre Haute, Ind., KLL-Lubbock, Tex., and WKBX-Kissimmee, Fla.

BONNIE KING

Biggest news in Australian country music last week was the issuance on the local Columbia label of a new "teen beat" pressing by the country's top c&w artist, Slim Dusty. It's tagged "The Pub Rock" and according to Dick Mason (7EX-Launceston, Tasmania) the tune could be a big seller but will need the necessary disk jockey action often missing on an Australian country tune. . . . Doris Cooney's next "Country Music-Country Style" show is set for Mar. 27 at the Sons of Norway center in Brooklyn. Headlining will be Bill Clifton and his Dixie Mountain Boys, plus Mona Kray, Al Lane, Red Brigham and Harmony Hayriders and the String Dusters. Joe Lacke of the Melody Lane Record Ranch is co-producer with Miss Cooney. . . . Brooke Records excited about the chart possibilities of its new Bill Bradley release, "Five Years and a Day" b/w "Whippoorwill". . . . Big news for Stanley Brothers fans. Starday has released an EP by them, encased in a handsome four-color jacket, and containing four sacred songs. . . . Don Gibson is mighty proud of the fine reading Roy Acuff has given Gibson's tune, "Don't Know Why," on his latest Hickory disk. Says the tune is a natural for Roy and the Smokey Mountain Boys (and to note the great harmony job June Webb and Oz do with Roy). . . . Eddie Noack, "D" recording artist, working in the Oklahoma City area, welcomes deejay requests for his latest, "Shake Hands With the Blues" b/w "Sunflower Song". Write him at 3016 Classen for a copy. . . . Rudy Thacker and Cowboy Howard Vokes are sharing billing at an extended engagement at Rudy's new Jamboree in the Denison Theatre in Cleveland. They invite country artists interested in appearing to contact him at 8225 Lorain Ave.

House Ways and Means Committee Holding Hearings On

Depreciation

On Wednesday, March 2, Hearings of the Ways & Means Committee of the House of Representatives began in Washington on proposals for amending current depreciation allowances.

As reported in the March 5 issue of The Cash Box, industrialists in the United States are strongly advocating larger and more liberalized depreciation allowances, and are urging Congress to enact relief measures immediately.

The Treasury Department is reported to have mailed out a questionnaire to 6,000 large and small business firms for the purpose of "arriving at a sound factual basis" for changes in depreciation tax allowances. American business firms, altho cooperating, do not wish any delays in enactment of a sound, more liberal depreciation allowance which the questionnaire may bring about. Correlating and study of the answers to the questionnaire, it is stated may delay action until the new Congress. Treasury officials, who, it is stated, are fighting a delaying action, argue that liberalized depreciation would mean reduced revenue for the Government and would contribute to an unbalanced budget.

Refuting this assumption is the report that liberalization of depreciation allowance for income taxes in Canada has been accompanied by a reduction in corporate income tax rates, by stimulating economic growth and profits.

The American Economic Foundation in a survey, found that the Canadian experience in granting depreciation allowances far exceeding those permitted in the United States, is significant, because it shows that large depreciation write-offs do not necessarily mean a decline in tax revenues. Among other facts disclosed, the Foundation found:

"The Canadian economy is perhaps the closest parallel in the world to the United States. Both are developing economies, are self-sufficient to about the same extent, and have about the same type of population.

"Under the Canadian system, all depreciable property is grouped into 17 separate and broad classes. Depreciation rates are assigned to each class and these rates are applied across the board to everything in the class.

"Each rate is set high enough to encourage expansion and replacement. No attempt is made to assign a useful life to any particular machine or other assets."

The coin machine industry, as is well known, should have a more liberal and realistic means of depreciating its equipment. It is hoped that the Ways & Means Committee studies the report of the American Economic Foundation regarding Canada's depreciation procedure, and that the results of the hearings will bring about legislation for a liberalized depreciation allowance. It would be well for the coin machine industry to make known its depreciation problem.

NATIONAL PUBLIC RELATIONS GROUP SETS FEE STRUCTURE

Appoints "Coin Machine Council" For Official PR Organization Title

Appoint Kraus & Co. PR Firm

Elect Panel Of Officers and Board

CHICAGO—The Information Council of the Coin-Operated Equipment Industry executive committee met Saturday, March 5, in a hastily scheduled meeting at the Morrison Hotel, this city, to act upon several vital matters regarding the huge public relations program, which is being devised for the coin machine industry.

The initial important matter for discussion on the agenda was the official appointment of Herbert M. Kraus and Company to handle the public relations program for the organization. The appointment was unanimously agreed upon by the committee after a general perusal of the Kraus firm's detailed proposal.

Another important matter unanimously agreed upon was a strongly made suggestion that the lengthy, cumbersome name of the organization should immediately be altered, since—either in the extended or abbreviated form—it presents a problem in attaining effective communication with the general public and the press. A new, more presentable name, the Coin-Machine Council for public relations, was presented by Herbert M. Jones, vice president of Bally Manufacturing and secretary of the council, and unanimously accepted by the executive committee.

The president and secretary, Lou Casola, and Jones were authorized to file Articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation, immediately, to affect the change in name with the Secretary of State of Illinois.

Thus, far, a general fee structure has been set up by the executive committee; and, although a complete breakdown is not as yet available for publication, it follows this general pattern: the annual fee range for coin equipment manufacturers is from $300.00 to $10,000.00, depending upon each manufacturer's annual sales figures; distributors will pay a membership fee of $200.00 annually.

The annual membership fee for operating members of the industry was revised from the originally proposed $5.00 (February 6, 1960 meeting) to this more logical breakdown: Class "A", $50.00; Class "B", $25.00; Class "C", $10.00; and Class "D", $5.00.

This more definite arrangement was unanimously agreed upon, and it was considered that each operator member would not take exception to the importance of a sound public relations program, therefore, will contribute according to his own conviction towards the importance of public relations to the continued and prospering success of his own business.

Support is also expected from two additional categories known as Associated and Affiliated members, which are represented among suppliers to coin-operated equipment manufacturers and other related groups.

In accordance with the necessity to enlarge the panel of officers of the newly named Coin-Machine Council for public relations, the following members of the Board of Directors were nominated and elected as vice-presidents: John Bilotta, Bilotta Distributing Co., Newark, N. Y.; Edward W. Holyfield, Coin Mart Inc., New Orleans; Harold Lieberman, Lieberman Music Co., Minneapolis, Minn.; and George A. Miller, president and managing director of the Music Operators of America.

Another matter taken up for discussion by members of the executive committee of the Coin-Machine Council was the possibility of engaging a booth at the Music Operators of America convention (May 9, 10 and 11) at the Morrison Hotel in this city. It is tentatively planned that personnel of Herbert M. Kraus and Company will operate this booth in conjunction with the council. The prime purpose of this action is to spearhead an effective membership drive among the nation's coinmen who will attend the conclave.

The entire panel of officers and board of directors consists of the following:

Louis Casola, president, Mid-West Distributing Co., Rockford, Illinois; John Bilotta, vice-president, Rex-Bilotta Corp., Syracuse, New York; Edward W. Holyfield, vice-president, Coin Mart, Inc., New Orleans, Louisiana; Harold Lieberman, vice-president, Lieberman Music Co., Minneapolis, Minnesota; George A. Miller, vice-president, Music Operators of America, Inc., Oakland, California; Herbert B. Jones, secretary, Bally Manufacturing Company, Chicago, Illinois; Herbert C. Oettinger, treasurer, United Music Corporation, United Manufacturing Company, Chicago, Illinois.

BEN STERLING APPEALS TO NATION'S COIN MEN FOR AID

Asks For Small Individual Contributions To Pay Off Moosic Youth Center Bonds

MOOSIC, PA.—Ben Sterling, Jr., one of the industry's leading coinmen, owner of Sterling Service, an operating company, and Rocky Glen Park, an amusement center, has contributed greatly over the years to many community projects, thereby bringing an indeterminable amount of prestige and goodwill to the coin machine industry and its members.

One of his projects at this time is Moosic Youth Center, of which Ben is chairman of the board. However, a financial problem has arisen, and Ben needs help. He is appealing to the generosity of the coin machine industry to help out. Let Ben tell you about it. He writes:

"Over a period of seven years, we purchased some land on Main Street at a tax sale and proceeded with the steel work and then the work was a standstill for three years as we couldn't get any money together to proceed with the building. Little by little, we had bake sales, minstrels, sold soda at a stop sign, had many little projects and we received the assistance of the American Legion, the Churches of Moosic, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the Parent-Teachers Association, the Parent-Band Association, etc., and erected the building. The building has been occupied now and we are in business.

"Now, we need $17,000 to pay off the unpaid bonds on the building. Could you get 17,000 people from this industry, big and small, to send us $1 each? (Ed note: There are hardly that number active in the industry, so we suggest that the sum be $2 each). We don't want to hurt anybody, we don't want to put our hands in anybody's pocket. We realize every community has its own problems but ours has just a little more than a fair share of grief. We are in a mining community and nobody uses coal anymore. Right now our unemployment is 26.60, which is the highest in the United States. Other communities have 10% unemployment which is something like 500 and 600. It's hell when one industry is responsible for the economy of an entire community because when the basic industry is down, other industries all over town are down. It is for this reason we are appealing to the big hearted coin machine industry thru The Cash Box. We know the Coin Industry always had a heart as 'big as a pumpkin' and we thought they would help us to pay off this debt. With this big debt off our back, we feel as though we could carry on.

"As it is now, it takes $10,000 a year to run our Youth Center and that is for coal, lights, water, heat supervisors, etc. We get $2,600 from the Lackawanna United Fund which is a county organization of the Community Chest. Our Lions Club has to go out and raise the rest each year which is roughly $4,000."

Typical of Sterling's efforts toward this goal is his participation in a forthcoming Moosic Lions Club show. Shown above, Sterling is being rehearsed in the art of the "hula hoop" by a member of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. ILGWU will stage one-half of the show for the benefit of the youth center. Local talent will comprise the second half of the program. Sterling is chairman of the entertainment committee.

(Ed note: We know that many coinmen are contributing to a number of public relations efforts at this time, but we are sure that you can also come up with a buck or two for Ben Sterling so that he and his group can continue to provide the necessary recreation facilities for the youth in his community. Please send your money to Ben Sterling, Sterling Service, Rocky Glen Park, Moosic, Pa.)

World Wide's Al Stern Dies

AL STERN

CHICAGO—Coinmen in this area were deeply shocked Wednesday, March 9, when they learned that Allen J. Stern, president of World Wide Distributors, this city, died during the night from a heart attack. Stern was 50 years of age.

Al Stern, who was widely known throughout the country and overseas, had built a huge following due to his humanitarianism and activity in the coin machine industry. He was known far and wide for his numerous philanthropic activities and was a prominent factor in the establishment of the Edgewater Heart Fund in this city.

Funeral arrangements were scheduled for Friday, March 11, 11:00 A.M., at the Weinstein and Sons Funeral Home, 3019 W. Peterson Avenue, in Chicago.

Stern is survived by his widow Ruth; sons Joel and Dr. Mark Stern; daughter Loren; sister Vicki Pinzur; two grandchildren Kim and Drew; and mother-in-law Nettie Cohen.

Doctor Mark Stern, who is a medical resident physician at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital in Los Angeles, California, arrived in Chicago Thursday, March 10, for the funeral services.

Al Stern began his career in the coin machine industry with Atlas Music Company of this city about twenty five years ago, and from there entered into an association with Roy Bazelon at Monarch Coin Machine Exchange. After this association was dissolved he formed World Wide Distributors in this city. Major associates with him at World Wide Distributors were his son Joel, Leonard Micon and Fred Skor.

Simon-Mack Rock-Ola Open House Showing

NEW YORK—At press time, Albert Simon, Inc., this city, newly appointed Rock-Ola distributors in the New York area, were holding an Open House showing of the 1960 Rock-Ola "Tempo II" phonograph line. Early reports indicated a strong turnout. Details will appear in next week's issue.

Pictured below, the Simon staff and Rock-Ola representatives prepare for what turned out to be a full house of operators and coinmen visiting the newly decorated showrooms and particularly the new Music Room especially designed and constructed to house the Rock-Ola "Tempo II" phonograph. Details of the showing will appear in next week's issue.

Top left, Al Simon and George Hincker, Rock-Ola advertising manager, "shake on the deal" as the "Tempo II" phonograph stands in the newly decorated Music Room. Top center, Jack Barabash Rock-Ola service-manager gives serviceman Larry Fiegenbaum some final pointers on the 1960 model. Top right, Bob Papi-neau, Rock-Ola regional sales representative, and Al D'Inzillo agree on the Simon sales program for the coming months. "2400S", Of Course!

LOS ANGELES — The picture story which appeared in the March 12 issue of The Cash Box covering the Wurlitzer Los Angeles branch showing, held during the week of February 15, at 2940 West Pico Boulevard, this city, incorrectly stated that the Wurlitzer "2300" phonographs were displayed to visiting operators. Actually, the factory branch held the showing to display the firm's new Wurlitzer "2400S" phonograph, the 1960 model introduced across the nation earlier this year.

While most operators immediately identified the photos as pictures of the "2400S" model, the headline on the news story incorrectly identified the machines.

Ray Barry, manager of the factory outlet has advised that the showing resulted in a most satisfactory reception for the Wurlitzer "2400S" phonographs in all eleven California counties as well as two areas in Nevada which comprise the sales territory for the Wurlitzer sales branch.

"Coleman-Seeburg Story" Continues As Nation's Pubs Publicize President

DELBERT W. COLEMAN

NEW YORK—The tide of Seeburg publicity continued to appear in mass media last week when The New York Times, Sunday Edition, featured a profile on Delbert W. Coleman, dynamic president of The Seeburg Corporation, in its March 6 Business and Finance Section.

The article, which explained in detail Coleman's financial dealings and future marketing plans, was a follow-up to the article in Business Week, leading business and financial magazine, which carried a cover story on Coleman and The Seeburg Corporation in its January 16 issue this year.

The 34 year old Coleman was profiled by the Times as a former Ohio lawyer who is a "hard working vending machine executive intent on creating a company that will command perhaps a fourth or fifth of a broad field of machines dispensing food, drink and music."

Coleman, together with an important but silent stockholder in the Seeburg firm, Herbert J. Siegel, had their financial past summarized in the Times article, recapping the duo's acquisition of various firms leading to the eventual acquisition of Seeburg.

The Times article mentions Coleman's initial step into the world of finance with the purchase of stock in a small Cleveland chemical concern. Before he was with the firm one year, its earnings had doubled to $300,000.

Following up this achievement the Coleman-Siegel combination acquired control of the Fort Pitt Brewing Company of Pittsburgh merged it with two Siegel family-owned enterprises, bought the Siegel family interests, sold the Fort Pitt equipment in one brewing firm and trimmed the losses in a second firm, and had their attention drawn to The Seeburg Corporation. The Seeburg family-owned company price was $10,000,000 with Coleman and Siegel getting an option and closing date for the sale, according to the Times report. Raising the necessary monies didn't come easy, according to Coleman, but $2 million in 6% debentures, from the Seeburg family, a $1 million 7% mortgage on Seeburg real estate with the pension fund of General Tire and Rubber Company, $1 million from the Coleman family and friends and $4 million from The First National Bank of Chicago on Seeburg receivables, loans on insurance policies totaling $1 million and a loan of $800,000 at 13% interest, accounted for the necessary funds with the balance raised from cash held by Seeburg in its treasury. "I wouldn't try it again for all the rice in China," quoted Coleman in the Times.

With the brewing company losing money and the other enterprises showing limited profits, Coleman decided that while diversification is sound, it should all be within one industry. Proceeds from the Fort Pitt name under a royalty arrangement, and liquidation of other holdings helped pay off some of the debts outstanding. Coleman is reported to have, at the same time, successfully consolidated Seeburg debts through a series of refunding operations.

Today, the Seeburg firm is reported by the Times to have a net worth of $20,000,000 and a respectable balance sheet. Coleman had succeeded in converting a red ink basis in 1957 to a record profit of $1,927,000 in 1959.

The Coleman story has no doubt impressed the general public with its success. However, looking at it from an industry point of view, the presence of these articles in national media take on a more important aspect in that they have succeeded in linking, for the first time in many years, the coin machine industry with American business in general. Also, the vending-juke box associations in the marketing plans as they are reported by the Seeburg Corporation tend to give the coin machine industry an aura of respectability which it has long deserved.

The New York Times headlined the Coleman feature with, "He Found A Jackpot in Jukebox". It was refreshing to find that the story proceeded to detail the activities of a coin machine firm in seeking profit that could very well be applied to almost any major corporation in the United States. This is a tremendous accomplishment.

PROFITABLE

When you think about profits, you have to think about Rock-Ola because the two words have always been synonymous. Now in 1960 the new TEMPO II all-purpose stereophonic phonograph makes possible even larger profits by cutting your inventory and installation costs.

The exclusive Rock-Ola "Tri-Fonic" switch and dual channel amplifier, for example, lets you use one phonograph to play either monaural, stereophonic or reinforced stereophonic music depending upon the need of the location. The TEMPO II eliminates the need for costly conversion parts. The TEMPO II is ready to play in any location upon delivery. Truly, in 1960 you need only one phonograph because the TEMPO II does everything.

For all around versatility and field tested dependability, see the Rock-Ola TEMPO II phonograph today at your local Rock-Ola distributor's showroom, the home of increased profits.

J. H. Keeney Co. Appts. Nemeroff To Sales

CHICAGO—Paul Huebsch, vice-president of J. H. Keeney & Company, this city, announced the appointment last week of Clayton Nemeroff as a sales representative for the firm.

Nemeroff, who has been connected with the coin machine industry for more than 25 years, stated that most of his time, since he entered the manufacturing segment of the industry, has been spent in traveling to every section of the country in behalf of firms he has represented.

Prior to this Nemeroff put in 20 years in the distributing end of the coin machine industry "making friends all over the country, both with distributors and operators."

Huebsch advised that Nemeroff will concentrate heavily on fully promoting Keeney's hot "Popcorn Vender" popcorn dispensing machine, as well as other Keeney coin-operated equipment throughout the nation and in foreign markets.

Bally Delivers "Official Jumbo"

BILL O'DONNELL

CHICAGO—Announcing delivery of a new shuffle-alley, "Official Jumbo", Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city, pointed out that the game revives two of the most popular scoring principles of recent years—Speed-Control and Super-Strikes.

"The 1960 revival of Speed-Control and "Super-Strikes," O'Donnell added, "is the result of a survey recently conducted to determine actual operating preferences in the shuffle-alley class. A substantial majority of operators mentioned our 'Jumbo Bowler' as typical of games worthy of a new edition, particularly because of the strong play-appeal of Speed-Control and Super-Strikes.

"Aside from the many mechanical improvements, such as the high-speed rotary totalizer, developed by Bally engineers since the days of 'Jumbo Bowler', the big advantage of 'Official Jumbo' is the fact that the game offers push-button players' choice of Speed-Control scoring or scoring by official bowling rules. This flexibility of play-style naturally results in maximum play on location, maximum earnings and—looking a long way ahead—top re-sale value.

"When playing the Speed-Control game, player strives to perfect two types of skill—aim and speed of shot. If shot is either too fast or too slow, score-indicator will either over-shoot or under-shoot the higher values for spares, strikes and Super-Strikes. A well controlled shot, on the other hand, will register in the middle range of the score-indicator, where the higher score-values are located. Perfect control enables player to ring up 500 for Super-Strike, 200 for strike, 150 for spare. Perfect game is 6,000," continued O'Donnell.

"A refinement of aiming skill is introduced by the Super-Strike feature. A puck skillfully shot along yellow lanes knocks down all 10 pins and scores strike in usual way. But, if shot is confined between red lines printed on each yellow lane, all 10 pins are knocked down and Super-Strike, instead of strike, is scored.

"Super-Strike feature insures play from all types of location patrons. The average player will score enough strikes to hold his interest, while the 'expert' who finds ordinary strikes too easy, will shoot for Super-Strikes.

"When players elect to play according to official bowling rules, Speed-Control and Super-Strikes are, of course, ineffective, and scoring is exactly as in regulation bowling. There are always enough real bowling fans in every location to attract plenty of play to the official game, which is why we decided to revive 'Jumbo Bowler' as a two-way, players' choice game.

"Official Jumbo' is housed in the standard 8½ ft. by 2½ ft. cabinet. From one to six can play at a time a play," concluded O'Donnell.

Musicians of Conn. Elect Lambert Pres., P. Tolisano, V.P., Marks, Sec.

HARTFORD, CONN. — Abe Fish, member of the board of directors of the Music Operators of Connecticut, Inc., this city, has advised that the association held a dinner meeting recently at the Bond Hotel for the purpose of electing a new slate of officers and to discuss local public relations programs and legal problems.

Jerome Lambert, Stamford, was elected president of the association while Phil Tolisano, Hartford, was appointed vice-president of the organization.

Other coinmen elected to officer posts are as follows: Frank Marks, New London, secretary; Tony Wilkas, Hartford, treasurer; Byron Athenian, New London, sergeant-at-arms; and delegates at large George Sivelli, Williamantic, and Isadore Resnick, Hartford.

Also on the board of directors, in addition to Abe Fish are Pat Montano, New Haven; Nate Lesser, New London; Martin Rosa, Waterbury; William Lengyl, South Norwalk, and Tony Degutis, of New Britain.

Fish spoke on public relations during the meeting and one of his points embraced the installation of pin games in what should be considered "out-of-bounds" locations — near churches, schools and similar buildings housing children from the area. He also advised that members refrain from installing games in neighborhood establishments that cater to children.

The meeting closed with members unanimously agreeing to an all-out effort to increase the present membership thereby strengthening the industry in this area for problems that will arise during the course of business.

PR Committee Winds Up Drive With Check To Servicemen's Club

— EASTERN FLASHES —

The Public Relations Committee in New York State hasn't scheduled a meeting of late but the program has been running full swing as evidenced by the presentation on Friday morning, March 11th, of a check from the coin industry to His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, toward the Cardinal Spellman Servicemen's Club, an annual fund raising program of the coin industry here in N.Y. State. Al "Senator" Bodkin, Meyer Parkoff, and Barney Sugarman, made the presentation to Cardinal Spellman in his offices on Madison Avenue and the coinmen will attend the annual Communion Breakfast being held Sunday, March 20th, at the Plaza Hotel. Later in the day, the new Servicemen's Club building will be dedicated, with coin industry members in attendance during the dedication. Al Bodkin made it clear to all that the money raised was the cumulative contributions stemming from many, many coin machine individuals and associations in the State and represented a group effort on the part of the coin industry. Programs such as this help raise the PR level of our industry and certainly are most important in our everyday business. News coverage and photos will appear in next week's issue of The Cash Box with full details of the results of this program.

Johnny Bilotta, Rex-Bilotta Corp., Syracuse, N.Y. back from a 10-day vacation in Miami and several days at the Chi plants. Bilotta has big plans for the music, game and vending lines in his area and reports from Jack Shawcross, Fred Iverson, Bob Catlin, and Roland Smith indicate that all of the branch offices are doing a good sales job. . . . In answer to the many requests inquiring the date of mailing on Young Men's Coin Machine League membership cards, the mailing will go out in about two weeks. A steady flow of new member applications held up the mailing planned earlier. If you're in the coin machine business and 40 years of age or under it would be to your advantage to drop a line to The Cash Box New York office advising your name, firm, address, and date of birth. You'll be included in the first membership card mailing. No charges at all. . . . We didn't recognize Irv "Kempy" Kempner, Runyon Sales Co., last week. Tho't he was a Madison Ave. ad man who wandered off the beaten path. But a closer look showed that it was "Kempy" alright, behind those classy new cheaters—jet black frames and all! Morris Rood had better expand his office—there just isn't enuf room for all those ops waiting to speak with the music-games sales manager! Barney "Shugy" Sugarman was in the N.Y.C. showroom and looked real spiffy in his Continental duds. Felt great, too. Myron Sugarman is doing a solid export job out Newark way, advises "Shugy", and more export accounts are ordering than have been for quite a spell. Perry Lowengrub in the field bringing in AMI music sales on the "K". "Kempy"'s son, Ken, was elected to the National Honor Society, group of honor roll students from high schools all over America. Irv advises that Ken is thinking of a scientific future. . . . Dick Wenzel, Kingston op, down for a visit with distribs. . . . Irving Holzman, Black Sales Co., shipping new United games and handling reservations for the up and coming UJA-Sandy Moore dinner and also coin division contributions. "Whitey" Druckman busy with reconditioning for the export market. . . . Mike Munves, Mike Munves Corp., is completely sold out of "Ingo Grip-Testers" and is waiting a shipment from Sweden to fill awaiting orders. Joe Munves did a bang-up job signing distribs on the "Ingo" and plans another sales trip on the West Coast soon. Large export order was leaving the Munves showroom earlier last week for a shipment to Europe following a request for arcade equipment from the arcade outfit. . . . Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., had the entire showroom and the next door shop busier than Grand Central Station with carpenters, sign men, wall-paper hangers and general handymen decorating the showrooms for the big open house showing of the 1960 Rock-Ola "Tempo II" phono, Thurs., Fri., 3/10, 11, which Simon is now distributing in the New York area. Al D'Inzillo was "up to his neck" with regular business and plans for the music line and showing. Stanley Nankoff stopped by, squeezing in a short visit between the arcade and route business and phono sales plans. . . . Jack Barabash, Rock-Ola service manager, is in New York for the Simon Rock-Ola showing, as he is at most showings across the nation. Jack keeps busy helping distribs service ops with technical info pertaining to the phono equipment. . . . Hank Peteet, Wurlitzer field service manager, stopped by the Sandy Moore Dist. showrooms and advised that he had just returned from West Virginia's snowstorm with drifts of up to 50 feet (!) arriving just in time to see the snow catch up with New York. Hank's had enuf winter for a long time. Allie Goldberg and Henry Clavis handle the parts dept. out of N.Y.C. while Capitol Projector Corp. uses most of the showroom space to display Auto-Test equipment and handle administration work. The showroom is actually accommodating two completely different firms now. . . . Hymie Koepfel is back in N.Y.C. after a short stay in Arizona but only to set up a business deal and return to Phoenix, with his wife, possibly to stay. Harry Koepfel meanwhile ships used equipment and keeps the export orders moving. . . . Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic N.Y. Corp. had just returned from a luncheon with Msgr. John P. Kelly, of the Cardinal Spellman Servicemen's Club, when we caught up with him and at this luncheon the plans for the coin machine industry check presentation was made. The recent snowfall, laying over the weekend, leaked through the Atlantic walls and window in Parkoff's office soiling notes, papers, back issues of The Cash Box and other business material. "I found out that by cleaning up the whole mess I could get along without 90% of it," stated Meyer, and the distrib's office actually benefited from what started out to be a catastrophe. Murray Kaye is shipping Model "Q"'s just as fast as ever, he comments, and the cigarette machine is doing quite well, too. Murray told us the export business was doing better than usual. . . . Iz Edelman, Cine-Sonic Sound Corp., is moving the new stereo background music systems to distribs throughout the nation. The unit is designed for music machine ops with locations demanding stereo but incapable of supporting the op's investment on a stereo phono. . . . Meanwhile, games ops in the area, get up the annual $50 common show license due this month for each game on location.

Local Coinmen Mourn Al Stern's Passing

— CHICAGO CHATTER —

The coin industry in this area and across the nation went into mourning last Wednesday when the shocking news was learned that Allen J. Stern, personable president of World Wide Distribs, died in his sleep during the night. Expressions of sorrow poured into this office from coinmen on all levels of coinbiz. One fact stood out above Stern's great accomplishments as the founding helmsman at World Wide. And that is his great humanitarianism and many philanthropies on behalf of countless vital charitable organizations. He had been a driving force in spearheading the Edgewater Heart Fund. We join all of Al's friends in extending our heartfelt condolences to his widow, Ruth; sons, Joel and Dr. Mark; daughter Loren; all other members of the family; and his very good friends and associates at World Wide Distribs, Leonard Micon and Fred Skor.

FRANK MITCHELL

Herb Oettinger and Bill DeSelm, United Manufacturing, momentarily sidetracked any discussion of their great success with United's "Big Bonus" shuffle alleys and "Team-Mate" big ball bowling alleys to express their deep sorrow in the passing of Al Stern. They were both high in their praise of Al, and made particular mention of his great contribution to the coin machine industry for many years. . . . Rock-Ola's George Hincker advised that Ed Doris departed last week for a lengthy sojourn through the west, with special emphasis placed on his visits in Seattle and Salt Lake City, Utah.

George and Jack Barabash enplaned to New York to attend Al Simon's Open House and to visit with distribs on the eastern seaboard. Frank Mitchell busy setting plans to be in Omaha over the weekend for the Music Guild of Nebraska's conclave. . . . A very dejected Art Weinand was in New York when it was paralyzed by a sudden snowstorm. He hopped the first plane available for Chi only to find that some of that city's snowfall was still in evidence. However, he expressed his solace in the fact that New York's blizzard didn't follow his back home.

Alvin and Nate Gottlieb are high in their praise of D. Gottlieb & Company's new "Lite-A-Card" 2 player pinball amusement game. Production is at peak, and it appears this schedule will be maintained. Nate phoned to tell us how very shocked everyone at the Gottlieb plant were to learn of Al Stern's sudden death. . . . Auto-Bell's Al Warren enplaned last Wednesday enroute to New York to be on hand for Al Simon's gala celebration. From there he scooted over to Syracuse, New York, Friday a.m., and then to Omaha Friday evening for the big Music Guild of Nebraska two-day shindig. . . . Bally's Herb Jones is burning the midnight oil these days helping the new Coin-Machine Council for public relations kick-off its program. Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager, heaps many accolades on Bally's new "Laguna Beach" in-line amusement game. Art Garvey assures us that "Beauty Contest" is definitely showing up in sales and play interest in locations as one of Bally's biggest winners.

JOEL STERN

Clarence Schuyler, prexy of Games, Inc., returned last week from his skeet shoot "safari" to sunbathed Palm Beach, Florida and Puerto Rico. However, he modestly refuses to reveal his marksmanship accomplishments, and score in shooting down "birds" (skeets, to you unenlightened marksmen). Anyway, Clarence didn't have to hunt for wild cats. He has a very popular one right here, in his new electronic amusement game, "Twin Super Wild Cat". . . . Joe Robbins, Empire Coin, extends his and Gil Kitt's sincerest condolences to coinman Lawrence Egner due to the untimely death of his wife, Fern; and to Empire's Robert Wiley, whose mother passed away last week. Wiley manages Empire's branch office in Detroit, Michigan. Gil Kitt tells us he just finished setting up a complete arcade at the oldest established kiddieland in the midwest. Equipment includes 7 United "Team-Mate" bowling alleys, and a variety of other amusement and arcade equipment.

SAM KOLBER

Bally Vending's John Stewart showed us a desk full of orders and shrugged his shoulders when he said, "the more we increase our production of the new Bally 'one cup at a time' coffee vending machine, the faster orders pour in." John makes it clear, however, that he's definitely not complaining. In fact, he speaks for Dave Howle and the rest of the sales staff in saying—"keep 'em coming!"

. . . Chet Gore, Exhibit Supply, makes it quite clear that he wouldn't want to go through the turmoil of moving again. But he breathes a deep sigh of relief now that all of the equipment is completely wired up for electrical current, and production is rolling at full blast for Spring business on the "Vacumatic Card Vendor." Chet also is going ahead with his plans to start building arcade equipment for the trade. . . . Joe Kline reports that the sudden increase in domestic and foreign sales at First Coin augurs good tidings at the local distrib for the approaching Spring season. Sam Kolber, Fred Kline and Nick Nelson are kept constantly busy greeting visiting operators. . . . We dropped in on Clayton Nemeroff in his new office at J. H. Keeney & Company, and found him very busy lining up his sales program for Keeney's "Popcorn Vender". Paul Huebsch took advantage of the snow by breaking in a new mechanical sled with the aid of the Huebsch youngsters last week.

Atlas Music prexy Eddie Ginsberg reflected on the time, when he told us about the early days at Atlas, when Allen Stern started his coinbiz career at Atlas with Eddie and the late Morrie Ginsburg. Eddie was high in his praise of Al, and he sorely laments his loss to the trade. Nate Feinstein and Harold Schwartz info that the diversification program at Atlas is in full swing, with Seeburg phonographs and background music holding high sales figures along with sales activity on the Seeburg vending equipment lines. . . . Ed Ruber busied himself last week setting up a lengthy nationwide tour, which was briefly interrupted last weekend when Ed enplaned to Omaha to attend Wico Corp.'s exhibit booth at the Music Guild of Nebraska convention. Morrie Wiczer and Milt Wiczer regretted that they were unable to attend the shindig due to the pressure of business at the plant.

Sam Stern and Sam Lewis are high in their praise of Williams Electronics Mfg.'s new "Nags" pinball game.

Sam Lewis was busy making plans to enplane to Omaha for the Music Guild conclave, and then return to Chi. Monday to again hop on the "Nags" sales bandwagon. Lewis is one of the many very popular coinmen who put in a lot of spare time in helping to kick off the Coin-Machine Council's public relations program. He takes a serious and considered attitude about this necessary activity, and feels confident that the majority of manufacturers, distributors and operators will cooperate in this worthwhile endeavor for the good of the entire coin machine industry. . . . George A. Miller, president and Managing director of the Music Operators of America, urges manufacturers to rush their reservations for exhibit space at the upcoming convention (May 9, 10 & 11) at the Morrison Hotel. . . . Stan Levin, All-State Distribs, entertained Bernard Berman of Louisville, Kentucky last week. . . . Johnny Bilotta, Bilotta Distribs of Newark, New York, popped into Chi last week end with his wife and daughter. Johnny and his wife planed up from Miami Beach, and his daughter, who celebrated her "Sweet Sixteen" birthday arrived in town from her home.

Distributors and operators along Pico Blvd. this week report that 1960 should definitely be the year that the stereo phonograph will dominate the coin machine market for music. . . . Ray Barry, at the Wurlitzer factory branch, informs that Pat Pugliese has been added to the sales staff and that they are very proud to have him as a part of the organization. Pat says he's looking forward to seeing all of his old friends drop in at the new showroom. . . . At Badger Sales, Marshall Ames in Bakersfield over the week-end on business. Pete Ley in San Diego the past week on a sales trip. Marshall reports his oldest boy is going to a baseball camp being conducted on Catalina Island this summer. Shop foreman, "Rocky" Nesselroad, states they've been unusually busy in the shop. . . . Bill Yedlin, operator from Sherman Oaks, on a fishing trip to Mazatlan, Mexico. . . . Charlie Daniels, at Paul A. Laymon's, says the Bally "Derby" gun arrived this week and that it is causing lots of favorable comment among the operators. Charlie went on to say that business in general the past week had been good. . . . At C. A. Robinson & Co., Hank Tronick informs they are anxiously awaiting the arrival of Williams "Nags" game, with several orders already received from circulars only. United's "Big Bonus" shuffle alley, and "Teammate" bowler, still offer the best combination of games an operator can find, Hank continued, from an income and maintenance basis. Used equipment activity has been very heavy as a result of the remodeling sale, which has been going on for the past few days. Al Bettelman in San Diego this week to consummate a "big" deal, says Hank. . . . Mary Solle, at Leuenhagen's "record bar," reports they've had heavy sales action on "Irish" records, both singles and LP's, what with everyone preparing for St. Patrick's Day. . . . At American Coin Machine, Bill Lanzy states American is now operating in full swing with the showroom and shop now both completed. We are customizing all of our used equipment now, said Bill. Bill also wished to say that there will be a very important announcement coming from American in the near future. . . . Gabe Orland, at California Music, back from a fishing trip in Mexico and reports a wonderful time, but that the fish were a little scarce. Bob Yorke, former West Coast head of RCA Victor, stopped by to say goodbye to the gang at California before leaving to take up his new position with the diskery as a Vice President in the New York office. Redd Foxx, Dooto Records artist, dropped in to say hello and informed he's opening his own record store. Mr. Hayes, operator from Santa Maria, also in at Cal Music during one of his infrequent visits to L.A. . . . At Simon Distributing, John Freeman states that Jack Simon is at the Cedars of Lebanon hospital following an operation. John mentioned that business has been good the past week with several export orders being readied for shipment. . . . Norty Beckman, at Norty's Music Center, happy to have Gogi Grant in for a short visit to discuss her new Liberty releases. Singer Jess Davis was also by and is due out soon with a new deck on Bob-O-Link. . . . Some of the visiting operators seen on Pico this week were: Tex Nowka, San Bernardino; Mr. & Mrs. Beaver, Lancaster; Al Cicero & Norman Hays, Santa Maria; Roger Plante, Shafter; Walter Hennings, Costa Mesa; Bill Bradley, Covina.

auxiliary speakers can increase your take up to 50%*

"The latest change we are making from one end of the route to the other is the installation of auxiliary speakers . . . the reason for this is that we are primarily music salesmen . . . the public must hear what it considers to be pleasant sounding music before they patronize the machine. Several tests . . . proved that a location with music at the same volume for everyone in the place . . . invariably increases the play on the machine. I do know that with our auxiliary speaker program nearing completion, collections have increased as much as 50%. An old or regular location can be surveyed for additional speakers, remote control facilities, possibly a new machine with the result bringing a happy location owner, more money in the box for all concerned, and in many instances, more business for the location itself."*

...and AMi offers the outstanding speaker value!

The AMI EX-600 wall speaker makes the addition of auxiliary speakers to your route both practical and profitable. The ingenious new cylindrical design forms an ideal baffle for rich, full-range sound reproduction.

It is easily mounted in vertical or horizontal position and may be aimed in any direction after mounting.

The EX-600 is an outstanding performer at a surprisingly low price. Hear it . . . price it . . . prove it . . . at your AMI distributor's.

THIS WEEK'S USED MACHINE QUOTATIONS

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.
